NATION AND STATE TO PROBE MOB LYNCHING

Collinsville Affair Is Laid Before Cabinet and President; Governor of Illinois Orders State Officials to Act Quickly

MARTIAL LAW IN VILLAGE POSSIBILITY

Crowd of Miners Hangs One Who Is Said to Have Uttered Seditious Remarks; Dies After Protesting His Innocence

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Attorney General Gregory took to the cabinet meeting today a report of the lynching of a German, Robert P. Prager, at Collinsville, Ill., last night, for discussion with President Wilson. The government is expected to denounce the mob's lawless act and to express the hope that there will be no further such attacks.

ST. LOUIS, April 5.—No movement was on foot in Collinsville today for an inquiry into the hanging of Robert P. Prager, 23, a native of Germany, executed for making disloyal utterances.

IS HANGED TO TREE NEAR COLLINSVILLE.

Prager was hanged to a tree two miles east of Collinsville on the road to St. Louis by a crowd of 300 men, mostly miners. Collinsville is twelve miles east of East St. Louis. The lynching was the first in the United States of an alien enemy and was the culmination of a series of mob outbreaks throughout Illinois, started by "loyalists" who made alleged pro-Germans kiss the flag. Several tar and feather parties have been held in the vicinity of Collinsville in the last few weeks.

Mayor Siegel of Collinsville and the chief of police were disinclined to take any action today, as the hanging occurred outside the city limits. There were from seven to ten men who were ringleaders in the mob and all were known to the mayor, the police and orderly citizens who tried to quell the mob violence.

Efforts to learn in Collinsville or Maryville today the alleged disloyal utterances of Prager were unavailing. Prager kept bachelor quarters in a little shack in Collinsville and had lived there thirteen months. He was registered in the draft in St. Louis, according to a card found on his person. He also had applied for citizenship papers. He had worked as a cook, but during the past month was employed as a probationary miner at Donk Brothers' mine at Maryville and had applied for membership in the miners' union.

Before the rope was placed about his neck Prager wrote the following note in German: "Dear Parents: Carl Henry Prager, Dresden, Germany. I must on this, the fourth of April, 1918, die. Please pray for me, my dear parents. This is my last letter and testament. (Signed) Your dear son and brother, Robert Paul Prager."

In Prager's pocket was found a long "proclamation" in which he stated his loyalty to the United States and to union labor, and told of his difficulty in entering the miners' union.

Prager, yesterday afternoon put up posters at the Maryville mine, proclaiming his loyalty to the government. When the miners left the workings they were incensed by these proclamations and began to hunt Prager.

A brief report on the lynching came to the attorney general today from United States Attorney Charles Carr. Further details were asked. Officials said it plain that there had been no incident, both because of the effect in this country and also because it is feared reprisals may be made in Germany on Americans.

NEW SOCIETY IS FORMED IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, April 5.—Following news of the lynching in Collinsville, Ill., today of Robert Prager, alleged pro-German and disloyalist, it became known that there has been organized here a secret loyalist organization known as the "Chicago Enlightenment Society," whose slogan is "Down with the Huns in America, even if we have to take the law into our own hands."

Mysterious, anonymous telephone calls were received today by suspected anti-Americans advising them of the formation of the society. "If things don't settle down in a certain south side section there will be a repetition of the Collinsville affair," was the warning given one Tanton. "The only way for you anti-

Austrians See New Peace Move Believe Terms Are Discussed President to Make Draft Call

LONDON, April 5.—Lord Cecil, minister of blockade, today characterized the Austrian report that Premier Lloyd George and President Wilson are willing to discuss peace, and that Premier Clemenceau prevented them as "fantastic nonsense."

ZURICH, April 5.—Members of the Austrian parliament believe communications have been opened between the foreign office and President Wilson and have proceeded further than Foreign Minister Czernin's statement indicates, according to the Munich Nachrichten.

LONDON, April 5.—The "peace speech" of Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, is to be followed shortly by an address along similar lines by Dr. Von Kuehlmann, the German foreign minister, said a despatch from Amsterdam today.

Germany and Austria-Hungary are apparently opening another peace drive, but there is little chance of its having any result.

Count Czernin is expected to confer with Dr. Von Kuehlmann in Berlin on Tuesday or Wednesday.

Neither the allied press nor statesmen in the allied capitals attach any value to the utterances of Count Czernin.

AMSTERDAM, April 5.—An official statement made in Vienna today reiterates the assertion of Foreign Minister Czernin which was denied yesterday by Premier Clemenceau of France that a conversation concerning peace has been held between Austria-Hungary and France.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—President Wilson is preparing to launch the second great draft of American fighters.

He is expected to issue a proclamation this week notifying 800,000 registered men that they must hold themselves in readiness for service. The first great call to camps under the second draft will approximate 150,000 men, to start moving later part of this month. There will be a continuous stream of men to the camps.

British Pay Compliment to the Aviators in Service; New Concentration in Air Fighting Menace to Enemy Lines

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The landing of Japanese naval forces at Vladivostok to protect life and property was reported to the State Department today by the American consul there.

The action followed an attack on a Japanese officer by five armed Russians who upon being refused money for his release, shot him.

By FRED S. FERGUSON, United Press Staff Correspondent. WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, April 5.—American troops are now holding a sector on the right bank of the Meuse within sound of the guns at Verdun.

The enemy last night raided a listening post in this new sector after a heavy bombardment. A quick American barrage inflicted losses on the enemy.

These trenches, which range across the hillsides, are muddy but in comparatively good condition. The dugouts are lighted with electricity. The sector until recently was unusually quiet and soldiers plucked dandelions in No Man's Land. The first casualty inflicted by the Germans was a shell through a bass drum.

WILSON'S MESSAGE GIVEN TO TROOPS
The following message from President Wilson is published in the Stars and Stripes, the expeditionary force's newspaper:

"Please convey to the officers and men of our expeditionary force the warmest greetings on the eve of the anniversary of the United States' entrance into the great war for liberty and say to them that we have not only been proud of the way they have fought for themselves, but we have the utmost confidence that they will prove themselves in every sense to be made of the finest metal of free men."

LONDON, April 5.—A tribute to American aviators with the British army in France who are "numerous and always brilliant" is paid by the correspondent of the Daily News. He says that American aviation mechanics also have rendered splendid aid.

AIRPLANES USED FOR GREAT CONCENTRATION.
Describing the air fighting on the western front, the correspondent says that never before in any army have airplanes been used in such great concentration. On one sector of the battle front as many as three hundred machines are in the air at one time. The use of machine guns on enemy troops, guns and transports, by low flying machines, he adds, has been carried to a point far beyond anything in previous experience.

WOMEN BATTLE
SAN FRANCISCO, April 5.—A hair-pulling match followed a session before the Railroad Commission today when Mrs. Hugh A. Boyle and Mrs. Charles Clement became involved in an argument over the application of Hugh A. Boyle, owner of a small water supply system in Tiburon, to discontinue service to ten of his customers, among whom is Mrs. Clement. The women were separated and the hearing continued.

Confronted by a shortage of water, Boyle found that he could not serve but twenty-five of his thirty-five customers. Mrs. Clement applied to the commission for authority to cease service and recommended they purchase their water from the Belvedere Water Company. The matter was taken under advisement by Commissioner Gordon.

GET 61 NEW SHIPS
MELBOURNE, Australia, April 5.—Twenty-seven overseas and thirty-four constabulary ships have been placed at the disposal of the British government, it was announced today.

The coastal ships mentioned probably include those plying between Adelaide and Brisbane, most of which range in tonnage from 6,000 to 8,000. Many of the overseas ships are considerably larger.

FORFEITS BAIL
When the case of Ah Sam, accused of selling Chinese lottery tickets, was called before Police Judge Mortimer Smith this morning the defendant failed to appear and his bail of $300 was forfeited. Ah Sam was arrested in a restaurant on the joint in Eighth street last Sunday. He had his case continued until today to plead. Eleven visitors in the alleged joint forfeited $10 bail each.

Battle About Albert Is Favorable to British Despite Hun Numbers

Flanks of Allied Lines Hold Firm Notwithstanding Teuton Efforts to Turn Them and Force Wings of Great Salient ADVANCES MADE BY FRENCH

LONDON, April 5.—The British have been pressed back a short distance on the front east of Amiens to positions east of Villers-Bretonneux, the war office announces.

The Germans concentrated troops early this morning near Albert. British artillery took them under its fire. In the neighborhood of Bucquoy and in the Scarpe valley there was active artillery fighting during the night.

The Germans hurled large bodies of troops against the British between the Luce and Somme rivers, making repeated assaults. For the most part the enemy was thrown back with losses. The official statement follows:

Between the Luce river and the Somme heavy fighting continued yesterday during the afternoon and evening till a late hour. The enemy employed strong forces and delivered repeated assaults on our positions. These attacks were beaten off with loss to the enemy, but our troops were pressed back a short distance to positions east of Villers-Bretonneux (about nine miles east of Amiens, which they now maintain).

North of the Somme, the enemy's artillery has been active during the night in the neighborhood of Bucquoy and in the Scarpe valley. Hostile concentrations early this morning in the neighborhood of Albert were engaged by our artillery.

The Germans are renewing their efforts to take Amiens in an "extremely violent battle" in the Montdidier region over a front of more than nine miles, the night commander of the French war office declared. The British war office's night statement said the fighting was "continuing."

The enemy launched the attack early yesterday morning with eleven divisions (132,000 men) between Grivesnes and the Amiens-Roye road. Grivesnes is four miles northwest of Montdidier and 15 miles south of Amiens. The Amiens-Roye highway crosses the battle front near Demuin, ten miles east and south of Amiens.

In ten desperate assaults, the Germans gained only a few hundred yards, the French communiqué said. They captured the villages of Mailly-Rainval and Morieux, southeast of Amiens, in about the center of the front of heavy attack. The French, however, hold the neighboring heights, the statement said, and made progress in the Grivesnes region.

The British statement is describing the same attack, said the allied retirement was near Hamel on the south bank of the Somme, "where fighting is continuing."

The Berlin war office merely reported the breaking down of four allied attempts to retake the heights southwest of Moruail.

Before Verdun (where American troops are now in line) and at Parroy Wood, there was at times more active fighting.

GERMANS PLANTING BIG GUNS ON FRONT BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE
WASHINGTON, April 5.—The German high command intended to launch a new offensive on the Picardy battlefield. That is the interpretation placed by American army experts on the general renewal of fighting there.

The fact that the Germans have brought their big guns up all along the front to support their advanced lines means further desperate fighting, these experts say. And that Germany was able to do this in the face of all the allied guns and to overcome the handicap of rain-soaked territory, indicates also that she again has brought to the front great numbers of reserves.

It is believed here that there is a direct connection between the renewal of the battle and the address of the speech which Dr. Richard von Kuehlmann, the German foreign minister, is about to make. This speech is said by Amsterdam cables to have been planned by the kaiser and his advisers and is expected to follow the line indicated by Count Czernin, the Austrian premier, in his recent speech.

It will mark the launching of another German peace movement, which officials here say will receive no attention in this country. As a matter of fact it is already considered certain that President Wilson in his address in Baltimore tomorrow night will make it plain that this government has accepted Germany's gauge and will enforce its own peace terms, in company with its co-belligerents, with the sword.

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN IN PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS
There was much interest here today in the promised address of the president. It was believed that he would clear up certain disputed points as to the war position of the United States. Inasmuch as during the afternoon he will review General Kuhn's Seventy-ninth division of the national army—a division that today is ready to take the field—his address is confidently expected to be of a decided military nature.

LONDON, April 5.—Although the Germans made a few immaterial gains when they renewed the battle of the Picardy plain, the general situation today remained unchanged. Using an expression more famous in the American Civil War, the allied line "are standing like a stone wall." This is the fifteenth day of the battle.

Both the British and French were compelled to give some ground in the district immediately east and southeast of Amiens, but the German advance was trifling.

The German attacks were delivered after a severe bombardment from heavy German guns which had been moved to the front.

SUSPECTS FOES
WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, April 5.—Admiral Bachmann, governor of Kiel, has offered a reward of 20,000 marks for the capture of agents who, he charges, were sent into Germany by America and England to stir up strikes.

U.S. TELEGRAPH AND OIL PROBES ARE ORDERED

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today ordered an investigation of the physical condition of the telegraph and cable companies' property and of their financial condition, similar to the valuation proceedings of railroads under way for several years.

The inquiry is understood to be undertaken principally to assist the commission in passing on rate questions and includes the Postal Telegraph Company and a number of its subsidiaries, the Commercial Cable Company of New York, Mackay Telegraph and Cable Company with several subsidiaries, the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk, New England; the Kansas, American District, the Lehigh and Chicago, Milwaukee and Lake Superior Telegraph companies. The Western Union is not included.

A general investigation of railroad freight rates on petroleum and petroleum products was ordered today by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The investigation was decided on in view of wide differences in the amounts and percentages of recent rate increases sought by the railroads. It appeared, said the order that an equitable adjustment of rates could be effected only by a general investigation covering the whole situation.

TO PERFECT PLANS

U.S. to Take Hand in Clean-Up Doors of Several Places Shut

Grant, State Law Enforcement executive, charges that United States soldiers and soldiers were debauched.

TRIALS NOT TO BE IN LOCAL POLICE COURTS

Raid will be conducted by the Federal Intelligence Bureau of the Department of Justice, and the prosecutions will be held in the local police courts, and not in the local police courts, said the assistant United States Attorney James Colston.

"There will be no Oakland police court prosecutions, with fines or dismissals," Colston declared. "The Federal statute is plain, and those who have aided in the debauchery of soldiers will be subjected to the severest penalty prescribed. We shall ask that the places be closed permanently, or at least during the period of the war."

Don S. Rathbun, chief of the Intelligence Bureau, said that an investigation independent of that of Senator Grant had been under way, and that this evidence would be turned over to Colston to be used in any prosecutions he may institute.

The Rex, Eighth and Broadway; the Mecca, formerly the Owl, Tenth and Broadway; not connected with the Mecca saloon, conducted by Grant Gorman, with which it has been confused; the Follics, formerly the Lodge, in Tenth street.

The six cafes which had their dance privilege withdrawn, and which may have the liquor licenses also revoked, are: Mecca's, at one time Tim Muldowney's "Tavern," Seventh near Webster; the Tavern, Eighth and Broadway; Tod & Red's, Tenth street; the Hoffman, Seventh near Broadway; the Tuxedo, Ninth street, and Adams, formerly Nite & Dan's Ninth street.

CHIEF PROMISES TO REVOKE PRIVILEGES

Concerning these places Chief Nedderman said today that he had acted on the statements in Grant's report that he had positive evidence against them. If this evidence is presented at the conference, Chief Nedderman declares that he will close the places by revoking their liquor and dance privileges permanently.

Chief Nedderman took the matter of the cafes up with the city council today. He was told by Commissioner W. H. Edwards and Mayor John L. Davies, in the absence of Commissioner F. E. Jackson, who is ill, to handle the matter himself, as the council had complete confidence in him.

Nedderman has written to Senator

Grant, Mrs. Helen Sweet Artieda of the Public Welfare League, and District Attorney Hynes asking them to a conference in his office at which Grant will be called upon to present the evidence substantiating his charges.

"DOUBLE CROSS" SAID TO HAVE BEEN GIVEN.

It was declared on the authority of persons closely in touch with the situation that some of the people employed by Senator Grant had been "double-crossing" Grant by making reports of conditions in Oakland that would apparently give him evidence for prosecutions, and at the same time reporting to and receiving pay from the cafe owners themselves.

"Upon the positive statements of Mrs. Artieda, and Grant," said Chief Nedderman, "that they have concrete evidence of violations of the law against these cafes, I have ordered their dancing privileges revoked pending a complete investigation of the charges."

District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes received affidavits from Grant today in two red light abatement cases. Hynes stated that he would file complaints as soon as Grant presents evidence backing up the affidavits, or as soon as he could obtain the evidence himself.

"These affidavits are statements of one man, uncorroborated as they stand," said Hynes.

Americans to keep out of trouble is to reform."

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 5.—After long-distance telephone conversations today with Federal and county authorities at the scene of the lynching of Robert Prager at Collinsville last night, Governor Lowden shortly before noon called a conference of Attorney General Edward J. Brundage and Assistant Adjutant General Richings J. Shand.

Before the conference, Attorney General Brundage said the instructions had been given to begin at once a strenuous attempt to identify members of the mob that hanged Prager with a view to prosecute.

It was said that quiet prevails but that feeling against others suspected of being pro-German still was running high in the vicinity of Collinsville.

Jenkin Jenkins, sheriff of Madison county, was directed by Governor Lowden to take every precaution to prevent a recurrence of the Collinsville violence.

KANSAS CITY FIRE LOSS $3,000,000

KANSAS CITY, April 5.—Blackened skeletons of what had been huge buildings were all that remained today of three city blocks in the heart of Kansas City's wholesale district as a result of a fire last night which destroyed eighteen business stores and damaged a number of others.

The rapidity with which the flames traveled gave rise to the thought that the fire was incendiary, but there was nothing tangible today to bear out this assumption.

This morning the underwriters' association said it still was impossible to obtain more than a rough estimate of the loss which they placed at from $3,000,000 to $5,000,000.

Six firemen were injured, none seriously, and Nicholas Stefel, 10 years old, was run over and killed by a fireman's motor car.

These estimates, said to have been made conservatively, were given on the extent of $100,000 or greater: Ridenour-Baker Grocery Company, $200,000; Brite-Kawin Grocery Company, $200,000; Thompson-Hunro-Robins Chemical Company, $200,000; Great Western Company, $100,000; C. A. Murdock Coffee Company, $500,000; Webb Brothers Belting Company, $150,000; American Steel and Wire Company, $250,000; Low Brothers' Paint Company, $200,000; Waukesha Brewing and Spring Company, $100,000; Kansas Moline Plow Company, $100,000.

N. S. CARNIVAL PROVES POPULAR

Tonight and Saturday nights, the last nights upon which the big open air benefit carnival of the Native Sons will be held at Telegraph avenue and Nineteenth street, promise to be record-breakers. The committees have planned big program features for those two nights in addition to the regular carnival program.

Thursday night a tremendous throng was on hand. The newsboys, invited as the guests of County Auditor E. F. Garrison, turned out in large numbers and had the time of their lives. Wednesday afternoon the orphans were the guests of the carnival and were taken to and from the grounds in automobiles under the direction of Garrison.

Last night the organizations invited included the Loyal Order of Moose, Knights of Columbus, National Association of Letter Carriers, National Union, Order of Owls, S. P. R. S. L. Sons and Daughters of Veterans, Woodmen of the World, and Young Men's and Young Ladies' Institutes.

All the east bay parlors of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West and their friends will make merry tomorrow, the closing night of the big carnival. The show has been voted by the thousands who have attended as the best of the kind ever given in Oakland.

It is being put on by the Bernardi Exposition Company.

Here's A Gentle Laxative For Elderly People

A daily free movement of the bowels becomes a serious problem as you step from middle-life into old age, and much dependence can no longer be placed on nature herself. The bowels find artificial aid necessary.

The stronger the physic, as old people soon learn, the greater the contraction of the bowels thereafter, and so the wise purposely avoid salt waters, pills and other harsh purgatives. Many have learned to place absolute reliance on the gentle but positive action of a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin sold by druggists under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

It produces an agreeable movement as rapidly natural and free as high pharmaceutical skill can make it. Thousands use it regularly, in the small dose prescribed, and keep themselves in fine health and good cheer, and entirely free from constipation.

The druggist will refund your money if it fails to do as promised.

NO INCREASE

In spite of enormous increased laboratory costs due to the war the manufacturers of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin are sacrificing their profits and absorbing the war taxes, so that this family laxative may remain at the pre-war price of 50c and $1 a large bottle. So sold by druggists for 26 years.

Oakland Shipyards Will Pay Patriotic Tributes

This is the flag of the United States Shipping Board. It will be raised tomorrow in Oakland and Alameda shipyards with appropriate ceremonies.

Loyal Thousands to See U. S. Shipping Board Flag and Old Glory Raised Together

Oakland shipyards tomorrow will pay a fitting and patriotic tribute with songs and speech and ceremony to the first anniversary of the entry of the United States into the world war in defense of democratic principles, when loyal thousands will gather at the noon hour to participate in the raising of the flag of the United States Shipping Board for the first time, together with the national emblem, in commemoration of the nation's big Liberty Day celebration.

At the Moore Shipbuilding Company's plant, more than 10,000 shipbuilders will be given the noon hour off to take part in the observance. At the Hanlon Drydock and Shipbuilding Company's plant similar arrangements have been made. The programs which are to be followed have been outlined by the United States Shipbuilding Corporation in Washington.

Superior Judge Frank J. Murasky will be orator of the day at the Moore yards, and Joseph R. Knowland will deliver the principal address at the Hanlon plant.

Prominent army and navy officers, city, county and state officials, Federal officers, men prominent in marine and shipbuilding circles, and thousands of employees will participate in the patriotic observances of the day. At the Moore plant, proceedings will start with a parade of officers, guests and men of the shops, from the general offices to the flagpole in the center of the yard, where the main ceremonies will be staged.

MURASKY WILL SPEAK. Superior Judge Frank J. Murasky of San Francisco will make the opening address. His subject will be "The Meaning of the Flag and the Day," and he will pay tribute to the spirit of Americanism which has been the guiding force in the nation's shipbuilding program. Promptly at 12:25 o'clock the Stars and Stripes and the emblem of the United States Shipping Board will be raised by Harry Fawke, superintendent of steel construction, the man actively responsible for the building of the Federal ships.

Chairs for the President, for the nation and for the Emergency Fleet Corporation, under the leadership of Al Eyslee, foreman of the flange turning division. The audience will then join in singing "America," led by Alexander Stewart, Walter McArthur, United States shipping commissioner, will make the address of the day, reading the appeal of Edward N. Hurley, chairman of the Federal Shipping Board, to the shipworkers. The yard workers will then pledge allegiance to the flag and join in the singing of the "Star-Spangled Banner."

H. S. Walker, resident auditor of the shipping board, will read the patriotic poem, "I Am the Ship." As the workers leave the yard they will receive a shipping board booklet as a souvenir of the occasion.

ALL TO CARRY FLAGS. A special 100-foot flagpole is being erected for the flag raising ceremonies, together with a grandstand for the audience. EVERY WORK. "A Soldier's Life in the Russian Army" will be the title of the first of the April and May lectures for adults given by the Board of Education. The lecture will be given tonight in the Hawthorn school, Fruitvale avenue and Tallant street, and the speaker will be Corporal L. S. Okno, who served in the Russian army from 1910 to 1916, inclusive, and participated in the advance into East Prussia in 1914. In 1916 he was wounded and sent to a hospital, where he remained for one year and then was invalided to America.

The other lectures and speakers this month follow: "Belgium—a Burnt Offering to the God of War," Dr. Jerome Hall Raymond, at the Franklin school, Friday evening, April 12; "The World's Affairs Down to Date," Arthur I. Street, at the Claremont school, on Tuesday evening, April 16; "Mexico," J. M. Nichol, at the Clawson school, Friday evening, April 26.

You Will See Me in a New Suit Sunday

"When you buy where I do, at CHERRY'S, a little thing like lack of cash doesn't cut any ice. Up there you know, Tom, you don't pay all your cash out at one time—you just pay a little each week to suit and get the benefit from the clothes. I couldn't begin to describe the classy array of wing suits. It's a revelation in good dressing—and any of it yours on small easy payments. Stomach Trouble. There are a great many who have been afflicted for a long time with some disorder of the stomach and finally been permanently cured. Mrs. W. E. Scott, Peoria, Ill., writes: "My husband suffered for years with stomach trouble. He commenced using Chamberlain's Tablets. These tablets have done him good and have saved him a great deal of suffering. If you have not given Chamberlain's Tablets a trial you should do so, as you are almost certain to be benefited by them. ## M'GOWN TAKEN ILL AS TRIAL NEARS CLOSE

Death came close to interposing a final intervention in the trial of Madeline McGown for the killing of Rasmus Jacobson Groden, now nearing its end in the department of Judge James G. Quinn.

Worry over the notoriety and uncertainty of the trial, and grief over the fate of the little 18-year-old daughter, in vengeance for whose wrong he slew, is believed to have brought the father near to death's door. Last night in the county jail he was seized with epileptic attacks of severest intensity, four periods of convulsions following in quick succession, accompanied by a hemorrhage of the lungs. This morning again he was seized twice, and when the case was called was barely able to totter into the court room.

His appearance was haggard and despondent, his slight figure drooping as he took his seat. The jury knew nothing of the occurrence and even the daughter did not know of it, although the jail physician worked over the defendant for a long time during the night.

THOUGHT FATHER BETTER. "My father is better, don't you think?" said Margaret McGown, when asked as to her father's condition. "He doesn't seem to me to be as nervous as he was during the first of the trial."

The argument by defense counsel, A. A. Montagne, was resumed and occupied the forenoon. Carefully reviewed the evidence, beginning with a thorough analysis of the physical condition of the defendant. He declared that science has said that the execution of a man suffering from epilepsy is "an appalling spectacle." He said that history deplored the execution of famous epileptics for crimes for which they were not responsible because of their condition, and urged the jury to be sure that they were doing right before they pronounced condemnation upon the defendant for a deed that he declared to be justifiable.

He painted a pleasing picture of the family home of the McGowns, calling the jury's attention to the fact that all the time the defendant addressed his wife as "Mama" and the wife addressed him as "Papa."

The tragedy began to unfold when

NAMES PERKINS BIG BOND SALE

H. B. Perkins, formerly a member of the municipal market committee appointed a year ago by Mayor Davis, was today appointed by the mayor a member of the playground committee to fill the vacancy caused by the absence of John Fechter, who is in the army.

(The man lied and deceived and abused the hospitality that was extended to him. He met his just desserts for the infamous crime he committed, and for the killing of him the father should never have been brought to account.)

District Attorney Hynes will conclude the argument after Attorney Montagne has finished. The case will probably go to the jury late today.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.—The first direct subscription to the third Liberty loan was received today in a check for $1,000,000 from the Union Oil Company by the Liberty Loan committee of the Federal Reserve Bank here. This was to be allotted by the company, in 15¢ various branches throughout the state. That proportion allotted to Oakland is $12,000.

TO HOLD SOCIAL. The children of Mary's Sodality and St. Joseph's Athletic Club will hold their monthly social function this evening in their clubrooms at Tenth and Peralta streets, Oakland. Dancing and refreshments will constitute the program.

Like Mother, Like Child

The health of the nursing child mirrors the health of its mother. Rich, red mother-blood means a richly nourished, vigorous baby. Thin, weak mother-blood means a poor-blooded baby, and life goes hard with a poor-blooded baby. The nursing mother will find Gude's Pepto-Mangan a splendid general tonic, appetizer, and blood food.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan

"The Red Blood Builder"

Gude's Pepto-Mangan builds the blood from its very foundation, the red cells. It increases their number and power to carry life-giving oxygen to every organ, cell, and tissue of the body. Thousands of physicians have prescribed Gude's Pepto-Mangan for weak and run-down people of all ages, and millions of men, women, and children have used Gude's Pepto-Mangan. It is easily digested, promptly assimilated by the blood, and exceedingly pleasant to the taste.

Study this picture so you will know how genuine Pepto-Mangan looks.

Friendly Warning: There are many imitations of Pepto-Mangan on the market, but you can be sure of getting the genuine if it bears the name "Gude" and is put up in the bottle and sealed package as pictured here. Ask for it by its full name—"Gude's Pepto-Mangan." For sale at all drug stores.

LIEUTENANT AND BRIDE TO FORT SILL

Lieutenant James Kenney of the United States Aviation Corps and his bride, who was Miss Hester Hastings, talented dancer and singer of this city, left today for Fort Sill, Oklahoma, following their wedding Wednesday by Judge Mortimer Smith at the court house. None of their friends knew of the ceremony until the young couple made the announcement. Lieutenant Kenney came here for the wedding from Fort Sill, where he is a pilot in the aviation observer's school. Both he and his bride are well known in this city.

The bride, who is a niece of the late Frank H. Gould, former United States surveyor-general for California, is a graduate of the Hopkins Institute of San Francisco. She studied dancing under Veronice Vestoff, the Russian, and Lila Maple, and was a pupil of Gregorio Artieda, noted Spanish tenor. She took up aesthetic dancing and taught a class at Hotel Oakland. She and Lieutenant Kenney first met at a cotillion in this city. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hastings, 4611 Edgewood road.

Lieutenant Kenney was one of the first men to enter and to graduate from the

WELL, STREET WAS MILKY WAY, IF NOT HEAVEN

If Herbert Hoover, back in Washington on his throne, shivered a cold shiver today at exactly 9:15 in the morning, it would be sure proof of psycho influence. For just at that moment the gutters of Eleventh and Franklin streets ran pure milk, and only a little honey was needed to establish the fact that Oakland is the next thing to Heaven.

The milk came from a large dairy wagon owned by the American Creamery Company, and driven by M. Soares. A heavy rock-hauling auto truck driven by N. D. Gomez struck it, upsetting the large portion of its load into the gutters. No one was injured and neither truck or wagon damaged.

But the street looked like a "Snow scene in Normandy," as seen in a film weekly. About $50 worth of milk slaked the dust.

School of Military Aeronautics at Berkeley, and to be successful in an examination for a position as a Reserve Military Aviation Pilot. He was formerly an automobile salesman here. He is a son of Mrs. Lydia Kenney, 2237 East Twenty-first street.

WING IS AN ALL-AROUND BUTCHER

"Charley" Wing, a Chinese pork-butcher, chops up pigs with rare skill. He can serve out spare ribs with lightning. He can serve out spare ribs with lightning like efficiency.

It's all in the cleaver he uses—not the ordinary butcher's cleaver at all, but a two-handed affair, with a very heavy, thick back and a razor-like edge, the blade being about three feet long. The ordinary butcher could not handle it at all, but in Wing's hands it is as delicate an instrument as a surgeon's lancet.

"Is that a Chinese butcher's ax?" he was asked.

"Well—kind of a butcher," he says.

"Use him in China to cut off heads. Executioner's sword. Savvy?"

Wing used to be an executioner in China in his youth, and was famed for conducting decapitations with exquisite skill. Later he came to America to be a butcher, and brought his two swords with him. They're wonderful meat choppers, he says, when you know how to wield them.

BUN IS A BUN, WHETHER RICE, WHEAT OR

SAN FRANCISCO, April 5.—"A woman is only a woman, but a blonded bun is a joke!"

So might Kipling have written, instead of the way he did, had he seen Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, president of Stanford University, and food conservationist, refuse to lunch with the Century Club, when an alluring, light-complexioned bun was laid by his plate.

Dr. Wilbur thought it was a wheat bun. He said so. Then he lectured the ladies on food saving, rose and departed hence. Nor would he return, and the luncheon progressed without him. Mrs. E. E. Brownell, president of the exclusive organization, admits the bun. But she denies the wheat. She says it was rice flour, authorized by Uncle Sam, and that Dr. Wilbur was all wrong.

Stanford's president said afterward that he did not taste the bun, but that he did speak generally of "food conservation."

The ladies who heard the speech declare he "curled the atmosphere!"

The bun? A waiter ate it.

MAIL CARRIERS MAKE SALE RECORD

Oakland mail carriers sold $83,407.47 worth of war savings stamps in March, an increase of $6251.15 as compared with their sales in February.

The sum is apportioned as follows by Postmaster Joseph J. Kosborough, who filed the report with the War Savings Committee, 319 Syndicate building: War savings certificate stamps, $10,555.72; Thrift stamps, $16,740.75.

Dan Hallahan leads the host of mail carriers for the month in the individual sale of stamps. He sold war saving stamps, both kinds, to the amount of $5888.55.

Frank Logan was second with a record of $2045.95, and Charles Allen, third, $1072.75.

Meanwhile there is an ever-increasing demand for the "baby bonds." Oakland and Alameda county folk are acquiring the habit of thrift and saving. They are saving quarters and buying thrift stamps.

They are turning thrift stamps into $5 war savings certificate stamps.

Incidentally war savings certificate stamps cost $4.15 this month.

The machinery of the war savings committee, headed by H. C. Capwell, county director, has been set in motion for the organization of war savings societies. Systematic saving by men, women and children pledges the save is one of the greatest benefits of the war savings plan. Systematic saving soon becomes a habit and that is the real purpose of the "baby bonds."

TRANSFER FORCES TO ITALIAN FRONT

WASHINGTON April 5.—Transfer of all the Austro-German forces formerly in Rumania under General von Mackensen to the Italian front is reported in official despatches from Rome. It is declared that a drive still impends in Italy and that the enemy evidently is only awaiting favorable weather conditions.

Italian military critics are of the opinion that the Austro-German drive will be against the mountain line. Aviators report that large bodies have been transferred from the Rhine line to the mountain zone by the Austrians. It is reported that recently the Austrians have undertaken the construction of new fortifications along the Livenz and the Tagliamento rivers, adopting a new system consisting of points of support with several bridgeheads. Italian prisoners and the civilian population of invaded Italian provinces have been compelled to work on these fortifications.

The military critics in Italy believe that another reason for the delay in the Austrian drive is that the Austrians are loath to begin until the issue of the German offensive in France is certain.

NEW DISEASE.

SYDNEY, Australia, April 5.—Several additional deaths are reported as a result of a mysterious disease called "X," resembling infantile paralysis, which has recently made its appearance in the inland districts of New South Wales. Fatal cases have occurred at Narrabri. The board of Health has detached a large staff of experts to study and combat the disease.

Need of Iron Now

Illments Due to Insufficient Iron Common in Spring.

Iron is an essential constituent of pure and healthy blood.

Peptron, the new iron tonic, combines iron with nux, celery, pepsi and other blood and stomach tonics that successful physicians prescribe.

It is a wonderful corrective of anemia, paleness, languor, nervousness, whether caused by hard work, worries, too close confinement indoors or any other cause. Peptron will multiply the red corpuscles in your blood, tone your nerves, improve your color, aid your digestion and restore the health and strength that you must have for the cheerful performance of daily duties.

Peptron is in the form of pills, chocolate-coated, pleasant to take, prompt in effect and economical.

Your druggist knows the great merit of this nux and iron preparation, and will be pleased to supply you.—Advertisement.

WAR GARDENS ARE GUARDED BY NEW SIGNS

"Planted for victory" cards are being placed in every war garden in Oakland. The cards, on waxed cardboard to withstand the weather, are in red, white and blue, and are being distributed through the Oakland War Service League.

A reward of $10, indicated in large red type on the card, is offered by the league for the arrest and conviction of any person found damaging one of the war gardens over which the "Planted for Victory" signs are erected. The reward is offered by the War Service League, and is part of the war garden campaign being made by the league. The cards bear the words:

PLANTED FOR VICTORY.
"War Garden Planted for Victory. Help us protect it," followed by the offer of the reward, and the address, room 311, Central Bank building, and telephone number, Oakland 228, of the War Service League.

Already several hundred of the cards are out decorating as many war gardens. The cards are obtainable from any of the district war garden clubs, from the central headquarters of the league, and are also being carried by some of the florists. The only charge is five cents, to cover the cost of cardboard and printing and distribution.

Another card, issued by the War Service League, is being placed in the windows of stores and homes. It tells its own story, and reads as follows:

"WILL YOU HELP FEED OAKLAND?"

"Money in it.
"Last year, one lot, 30 by 130, with-out water, with little cultivation and from 15 pounds of seed, produced 100 pounds of white beans, worth at harvest 15 cents per pound. With proper cultivation the yield should have been 500 pounds.

WILL COOPERATE.

"Cooperating with the city director of food production under the Council of Defense, the War Service League desires to bring the garden and the gardener together. Let us list your vacant lot now. Let us find you a garden plot now—free.

"All lots donated to this patriotic service will be mapped for selection with the City Director of Food Production, room 420, Central Bank building, telephone, Oakland 132. Call between 10 and 2 o'clock."

TRY TO ESCAPE.

LOS ANGELES, April 5.—Wanted in Portland on a statutory charge, Lester A. Benfer and Frank Gerth attempted a jail break early today but were frustrated. They now face more serious charges.

"In the Zone" Is Story of German U-Boat Murders

KALMAR AND BROWN.

"In the Zone," an expose of the "inside" of the horror of German submarine warfare, comes next week to the Oakland Omnibus.

Harriet Beecher Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" is said to have really started the Civil War. "In the Zone" is awakening America. It is one factor that has determined America to stay in the fight for freedom to the end.

Seldom has a playlet measured up so completely to vaudeville standards than this remarkable product of the skill of the Washington Square players of New York. It shows in detail the horrible waiting of those who cross the U-boat zone, expecting to meet death at any moment. Then, by a twist, it relieves the tension and furnishes a surprise.

The scene is the forecastle of a ship passing through the diver zone. Here the sailors are alert, expecting unseen death at every moment. Then they decide the spy is among them, and seek him. Then comes the climax.

With the play is a bill of headlines. Bert Kalmar and Jessie Brown offer "Nursery Land," and Fradkin, the violinist; Marion Harris, syncopation's queen, and other big features are also promised.

From the TRIBUNE
Assistant District Attorney B. Smith was cross-examining the wife of a man who had confessed being a burglar. "Did you know this man was a burglar when you married him?" asked Smith. "Yes, sir." "How did you come to marry him?" "Well, it was between him and a lawyer and I took him." The cross-examination stopped right there.

BANKER BECOMES A BOX-MAKER
Archie Taft makes boxes. He is no relation of ex-President Taft, although he tried to look like him until his skin refused to stretch any further. But that has nothing to do with this story. This is about Archie Taft, banker. Taft volunteered as an income tax worker in a local bank while the statements were coming in. An income tax worker is one who works the income tax out of somebody. It takes delicatessen and skill. Taft says he is now qualified to be a first-class liar since he helped out. He emphasizes "first class" but rather hurries over the "liar" part. Anyhow, one man wanted $5000 exempt because he had

BEAUTIFUL HAIR, THICK, WAVY, FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Draw a Moist Cloth Through Hair and Double Its Beauty at Once.

Save Your Hair! Dandruff Disappears and Hair Stops Coming Out.

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—That's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after an application of Danderine. Also try this—moisten a cloth with water and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggly, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful. You can surely have pretty, charming, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will spend a few cents for a bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.—Advertisement.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We Eat Too Much Meat Which Clogs Kidneys, Then the Back Hurts.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally. This is true of the backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders. You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to the stomach, clogs the kidneys and stimulates them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts is harmless, inexpensive, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications. Well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Advertisement.

three wives. Taft tried to have the amount doubled. He said it was worth it, but the man told him it was not as bad as it seemed. That he was paying alimony to one of them, and living with the other. Taft said he ought to have $10,000 for the second, and the man thanked him. Then he mentioned that his third wife had turned up alive, after he thought she was dead. Taft immediately cut him down to $2000 exemption. "Any man that was that careless gets no consideration from me," said Taft. As an income tax worker, Taft is a good boxmaker.

NEW SCHEME TO SAVE SUGAR

Either the world is full of sleight-of-hand performers or else lump sugar has wings. In restaurants, cafes and other places where people foregather to eat, lump sugar is usually served as being the most economical form of "sweeten." Oaklanders have eaten their share, but they have not overdone it—that is until lately. But since the Food Administration has taken the joy and the profits out of life, there has been a noticeable shortage in lump sugar.

Society matrons who never would shoplift in a department store, surreptitiously "palm" a lump of sugar or two when they drop in for "tiffin," with all the dexterity of a professional legerdemain. High school girls get away with an extra lump for every cup of chocolate. During the recent teachers' convention, the sugar disappeared at an alarming rate. People in all walks of life are collecting lump sugar with all the enthusiasm of stamp collectors.

One restaurant man has offered a solution which may become universal. His idea is to chain an all-day sucker to the cashier's desk and let everyone bring up his or her drink and dip the sucker in it until the right "sweetness" is obtained.

INSULATORS NEEDED FOR CATS' FEET

When the north wind blows, always put insulators on your cat's feet. It may save a fire.

Chris Nielsen, well known business man, has a prize cat who answers to the name of Gorgonzola. When the north wind blows Gorgonzola charges up like a storage battery. When Nielsen rubs a finger up and down his spine in the dark, Gorgi throws off sparks like an engine wheel. It is an old trick, and one that Noah did in one way or another. Ben Franklin also tried it—with a key and a kite—and when the kite knocked him down, it made him famous.

Nielsen has paid little attention to these snappy static discharges from his cat, during north wind storms, until yesterday. He was filling the gasoline tank of his folding pocket runabout with which he runs under street cars on Sunday afternoons, when Gorgonzola started to poke around in the garage. The north wind was blowing and the cat walked into the fumes of the gasoline tank, and rubbed his spine on the edge of the can.

There was a flash, a bang, and a puff of smoke. The cat lit its eyebrows. Nielsen lost three gallons of valuable gasoline. Three cops, the fire despatch, an insurance adjuster and an income tax detective all arrived together. Nielsen explained that his Aurora Borealis cat had started the whole ruckus.

A sparking cat gathers no insurance!

RUMOR DISPROVED

The Rotary Club today took up rumors, which for some time past have been circulated to the effect that Adolph Schluter had been interned, investigated, etc., as a spy. After A. E. Carter, an attorney, had read a report of his investigations, setting forth that neither Federal, state nor municipal authorities had even investigated or suspected Schluter of disloyalty, a unanimous vote endorsing Schluter was taken.

Schluter said: "For a long time I have been making denials of these rumors. Carter's report is the truth; neither Federal, state nor municipal authorities have ever suspected me. I have been a citizen for 30 years, as was my father before me. I have only spent five years in the country so justly damned, and I deem it a glorious privilege to be an American citizen."

"We are all in danger of rumors. I remember rumors that several big Oakland firms were in receivership. They did immense damage and were purely malicious. I hope that after this you will nail such rumors when they crop up."

TO EXTEND TERM

SACRAMENTO, April 5.—Terms of California State normal schools were extended to three years by order of the State Board of Education, acting on a request of State normal school officials who have been in conference here since Monday. The term was restricted formerly to a two-year period and normal schools have been engaged in a movement since 1915 to have an extra year added to it.

It was said that the immediate effect of the order will be to increase the efficiency of the institutions in equipping and training teachers who are constantly called upon to teach new subjects and to handle subjects which are expected to grow out of the war.

MILLS ARE HALTED

BOZEMAN, Mont., April 5.—All building operations in Bozeman are at a standstill, both flour mills have practically ceased operation and other industries may close as the result of a strike of laborers here. An increase from $3.50 to $4 per day with time and a half for overtime and holidays was demanded last month. The employers failed to meet the demands.

WOMAN IS CLERK

MERCED, April 5.—Miss Margaret Winton, cashier of the county library, has resigned, after seven years of service, to accept the appointment of deputy county clerk. Miss Lillian McMeekin was appointed to the library.

Dreadful Cough Cured.
A severe cold is often followed by a rough cough for which Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has proven especially valuable. Mrs. F. W. Olson, Marysville, Mo., writes: "About two years ago my little boy Jean caught a severe cold and coughed dreadfully for days. I tried a number of cough medicines but nothing did him any good until I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It relieved his cough right away and before he had finished taking one bottle he was cured. I think it is just fine for children." For sale by Osgood Bros. Drug Stores.—Advertisement.

WOMEN ISSUE SUMMONS TO BOND PARADE

Patriotic participation in war work by Oakland women is emphasized and an appeal to them to maintain the high standard now established, is made in a proclamation issued today in connection with the Liberty Loan parade tomorrow. The proclamation is signed by Miss Ethel Moore, president Oakland Women's Committee, Councils of National and State Defense, Mrs. Magnus A. Andersen, General Women's Army, Mrs. Edgar Ormsby, chairman Oakland Women's Committee, Mrs. F. L. Stow, president of the State Legislature, Council of California.

The proclamation says:

"This Saturday, April 6, is the beginning of our second year of war. To show what women have done, what women can do, what women are willing to do to win the war, you are urged to call a special meeting of the organization you represent in order to take part as an organization as well as individually in Oakland's patriotic demonstration by marching in the Liberty Loan parade. Such processions in other cities have proven of very great local stimulus in raising the community's meaning and the seriousness of this all-world war.

"We need just this opportunity in Oakland.

THREE COGENT REASONS.

First, to dedicate ourselves all that we are and all that we have to the cause of humanity, just as husbands, sons and brothers, in camp or overseas, are offering everything that they have to give.

Second, to show that we women are one in spirit with those other women of Belgium, France, Serbia, Italy—who with their children have died a thousand deaths in cruel martyrdom, or living have shouldered, uncomplainingly, far heavier burdens than we at this distance can begin to realize.

Third, to show our fellow citizens where we stand.

"Are we for the government, or are we not? Are we for the Liberty Loan or are we not? Are our dollars 'soldier' dollars or are they 'traitor' dollars? Are we going to fight, with all strength and energy in the Red Cross, in the Women's Army, in food conservation, in shoulder to shoulder with our boys in khaki, or are we going to stab them in the back?

"Women of Oakland, answer by rallying next Saturday, April 6, at Chabot Hall, Eleventh and Jefferson, in time to lead the procession which will start at 2 o'clock promptly. One of the first divisions of our army to sail for France was the Rainbow Division. The Women's Division on Saturday will be our Rainbow Division, consecrated in hope and faith to peace in victory."

INFORMATION READY.

Women desirous of further information concerning the part they are expected to play in this demonstration are requested to communicate with Mrs. A. E. Carter at the Oakland Library Loan headquarters in the Syndicate building. The telephone is Lake-side 2700.

The following named are colonels in the Women's Army: Mrs. C. E. Wilson, Mrs. Samuel Breck, Mrs. C. D. Haines, Mrs. Newton Koser, Mrs. H. E. Hayes, Mrs. J. A. Tondog, Mrs. Richard Ebel, Mrs. Edith A. Mosher, grand vice president N. G. D. W.; Mrs. Thomas Mitchell Potter, chairman National Defenders' Club; Mrs. J. George Short, president Federation of Mothers' Clubs; Mrs. Lee Richmond Smith, president Navy League; Mrs. George Preston, president Glenview Woman's Club; Mrs. G. A. Riggs, president Rockridge Woman's Club; Mrs. Lucy McClintock, president W. C. T. U.; Mrs. Herbert Reinhardt, president Mills College.

MANY SLOGANS ARE SUBMITTED

Thousands of slogans have come to the headquarters of the Oakland Liberty Loan Committee as a result of the $29 cash prize offered by the OAKLAND TRIBUNE for patriotic slogans to be used on banners in tomorrow's Liberty Loan parade.

Persons in all walks of life contributed slogans in the contest, according to the parade chairman, Max Horwinski. The committee of award, consisting of Horwinski, George A. Cummings and K. L. Hamman, labored until long past midnight Thursday scanning the slogans which came in a big bundle from the postoffice.

Decisions as to which ones would be used were made, but it was a matter of award, on account of a rush of other activities preliminary to the big parade tomorrow, will not announce the names of the winners until Sunday morning.

In the meantime, explained Horwinski this morning, the best slogans are now being painted on transparencies to be carried in the parade by banner-bearers in advance of each division and between the scores of separate units which will represent various features of war work and war activities.

TO MEET TONIGHT
A large attendance is expected at the public meeting to be held by the Psychopathic Association of Alameda County this evening in the auditorium of the Oakland Technical high school. The care and commitment of the insane and the necessity of more scientific methods of caring for those suffering from mental disorders will be the subject of discussion.

The speakers will be Dr. J. C. E. Snook, Philip Carey, formerly in the district attorney's office, and Dr. Glenn E. Myers, assistant physician at the Alameda state hospital.

Officer J. Snedden, chief probation officer of Alameda county, president of the psychopathic association, will preside at the meeting. The meeting will begin at 8 o'clock and every one interested in social welfare problems is invited to attend.

STRANGE MALADY
SAN FRANCISCO, April 5.—The victim of a mysterious malady, George Sisco, a Russian, formerly of Los Angeles, who has recently been employed as an interpreter by the customs authorities, is a patient at a local hospital today and it is feared that he may not recover.

Sisco was stricken with a strange illness resembling seasickness on Monday. He visited a physician and was under treatment until late last night when he became suddenly worse. The police were immediately notified, but before a statement could be obtained Sisco lapsed into unconsciousness and could not be roused.

No More Catarrh

A Guaranteed Treatment That Has Stood the Test of Time.

Catarrh cures come and catarrh cures go, but Hyomel continues to heal catarrh and abolish its disgusting symptoms wherever civilization exists.

Every year the already enormous sales of this really scientific treatment for catarrh grow greater, and the present year should show all records broken.

If you breathe Hyomel daily as directed it will end your catarrh, or it won't cost you a cent.

If you have a hard rubber Hyomel inhaler somewhere around the house, get it out and start it at once to forever rid yourself of catarrh.

"The Oak Drug Company or any other good druggist will sell you a bottle of Hyomel (liquid), start to breathe it and notice how quickly it clears out the air passages and makes the entire head feel free."

Hyomel used regularly will end catarrh, coughs, colds, bronchitis or asthma. A complete outfit, including a hard rubber pocket inhaler and bottle of Hyomel, costs but little. No stomach dosing; just breathe it. It kills the germs, soothes and heals the inflamed membrane.—Advertisement.

HENEY SCORED BY SUPPORTERS OF STEPHENS

Resentment at any attempt of the national Democratic administration to interfere with the normal action of the people of California in selecting a Republican for governor by sending a "hand-picked candidate" here in the person of Francis J. Heney was expressed at a meeting of the "Stephens for Governor Club," held last night at Woodmen's Hall in the Pacific building. The meeting was attended by about seventy of Stephens' friends and was called to order by the announcement was made that 1764 of the membership cards of the organization had been signed.

Arrangements were made for a Stephens rally to be held the first week after the close of the Liberty loan drive to line up the men and women who are ready to work for Stephens' election solidly behind the governor. The announcement of the date and place of the rally will be made later by William W. Friend, temporary president of the Stephens for Governor Club. It is hoped to have Governor Stephens present at the rally.

"PICNIC" SAYS TYRRELL.
That it will be a "picnic" for the Republicans of California to go out on a campaign against Heney was the statement of Senator Edward J. Tyrrell. Tyrrell painted an amusing picture of the "members of the reactionary wing of the Democratic party prodding Heney into the fight," and declared that should Heney ever occupy the governor's mansion at Sacramento "these same prodders would not be permitted to darken his door."

Senator John W. Stetson, Mayor Greene Majors of Alameda, L. H. Spiro and other speakers urged all Republicans and Progressives to back Stephens because he was committed to carry on those policies which had been established by Hiram Johnson as governor.

The present state campaign was linked with the national campaign of 1920, when Johnson may seek to be the candidate for President of the United States, provided Roosevelt steps aside. In the closing words of Senator Stetson's speech he said:

"I believe that Senator Johnson should be advanced to any position in which he can carry out those principles of democracy, of safeguarding the rights of the people. Governor Stephens stands for the kind of Republicanism Governor Johnson gave us in California. For the kind we have had recently in California and for the kind we have today. He stands for the kind of Republicanism we want in the United States."

SEEK REAL DEMOCRACY.
"Stephens is the only man in sight and practicable to put in the governor's chair to tend carefully the ark of the covenant that Johnson placed in this state. We are engaged in a war to make the world safe for democracy, but I tell you that until the government within the boundaries of our own nation has come to a full realization of the fact that there is a determination on the part of the people to realize it, the world will not be safe for democracy."

"This was the eternal struggle of mankind to realize some sort of a social system that shall make possible social justice, a struggle of man to get up into the light and exercise the full rights of manhood. Governor Johnson was during his seven years among us, a worker for real democracy. There was no thralldom in this state, there was no equality, there was a special privilege—there was nothing in it you could point out to a young man entering upon manhood and say: 'This is admirable.' Johnson changed all that, and it is

Mrs. Heney Arrives Home In Advance of Her Husband

MRS. FRANCIS J. HENEY, who arrived in Oakland today, bringing the first "official" word that Heney will enter the governorship contest.

BULLETIN.
WASHINGTON, April 5.—Francis J. Heney has resigned as counsel for the Federal Trade Commission in its investigation of the packing industry. Heney left the commission April 3 to return to California, where he will be a candidate for governor. His resignation was announced by the commission.

TALKS OF HENEY.
Senator Tyrrell paid his respects to Heney and Heney's supporters among the Democrats. "I would count it a privilege and a pleasure to go out on the stump for Governor Stephens and to pay my respects to Francis J. Heney. There is no reason and no excuse for his coming to California to be a candidate and I think it will be a pleasure to the Republicans of this state to set forth in no uncertain terms, both during the campaign and at the polls, why that is the case."

"Heney comes here as the personal representative of the Democratic administration at Washington to bolster up what seems to be a losing or a lost cause. I believe that even the Democrats will repudiate this hand-picked candidate at the polls."

"There is nothing Heney can accomplish either for good or bad except if he should by an extraordinary chance be elected. He can do nothing without the state legislature and this is against him. I have more than a nodding acquaintance with nine-tenths of the members of the legislature and I know that they are not for Heney."

"It makes me laugh to see some of these rare old reactionaries of the Republican wing of the Democratic party prodding Heney into the fight. They are not men who stand for what Heney stands for and Heney is not for them. Should he be elected Heney would not permit a goodly number of them even to darken his doors."

CHAIRMAN FRIEND'S VIEWS.
"There's our governor," said Chairman Friend in closing the meeting. "He represents the things we stand for, and we want to go out and put him over. After the returns that have come in from Wisconsin today it ought to give us the heart and the enthusiasm that the energy to do it and do it well."

"If the national administration is going to send here a candidate of its own picking, that administration is going to get hit in the eye in California in the same way it got hit in the eye today in Wisconsin."

HOSPITAL AIDES

The various navy recruiting stations, acting on orders from Washington, are making a special drive to enlist young men between the ages of 18 and 25 for hospital apprenticeship. This branch of the service is particularly attractive to men who have had some high school education or who are studying medicine and pharmacy. Hospital apprentices are given the best of the war so that men who have chosen medicine or pharmacy for their life work will be able to return to it after the war with a good foundation based on practical experience. Draft men are eligible for enlistment provided they get a temporary release from their local board.

MAY HEAD LEAGUE.

It is understood that a woman's Heney Nonpartisan Heney-for-Governor League, which has been in process of organization, will be formed and that Mrs. Heney is asked to head it. It will have headquarters in San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Mrs. Heney declined to discuss the political situation today excepting to explain that Heney is ready to jump into the fight on his arrival next week, and will remain in California, conducting his own campaign with the assistance of a number of his friends until the election. It is understood that Mrs. Heney is to have a large part in the work. It will be remembered that she managed Heney's campaign for Senator, and that she has been considered his best and shrewdest advisor.

"It's great to be home again," she said as the train rolled into Sixteenth street. "Isn't this just California weather? I wouldn't give a foot of California away for all the East put together, especially after the winter we've had here."

"We gave up our home in Washington and while we were moving out the new tenants were moving in. Washington is packed—you can't get a place to sleep in—so I came on home."

"I'm going to Los Angeles to take a room at a hotel unit. I'm arriving next week. We'll look for a place. We couldn't get our old place at Santa Monica—that's rented. We'll probably establish ourselves at Santa Monica at that. Mr. Heney, of course, has his law offices in Los Angeles."

EAGERLY AWAITED.
The return of Heney to California to open the campaign has been eagerly awaited by the Heney followers, and especially his establishment of his "legal residence" in Los Angeles and registration as an elector, to offset the capital T. L. Worthington and the Worthington governor backers have been making of Heney's non-registration.

GUM DRIVE NETS SUM OVER $4000

For the Oakland Chapter of the Red Cross, society women of the east bay cities yesterday made a tour of the factories, shipyards, theaters, trains, office buildings and wherever the crowds assembled for work or pleasure and sold chewing gum to raise funds for the local chapter. At the close of the day a harvest of more than $4,000 was reaped.

The expectation is that the sum will more than reach the $4,000 mark. Under the leadership of Mrs. Horatio Bonestell a score or more of captains and their assistants, numbering more than 200 of the younger girls and matrons, made the "drive" throughout the city selling the Chicle Chewing gum, that company having donated two tons of the gum for the Red Cross.

There were captains who met the incoming troops and at appointed hours collected the receipts of each trip made by the vendors garbed in the white Red Cross nurse costumes and wearing the insignia of the organization.

Mrs. C. Van Ring broke all records in "sales," taking in the sum of $585, while Miss Clara Alexander and her corps in the City Hall Plaza realized $540. T. F. O'Connor, who auctioned off a box of the gum secured $50 for the box, the purchaser being A. S. Levenson.

At the Hotel Oakland, Doraldina auctioned off another box of the gum, netting a goodly sum for the cause, while at the baseball grounds, the opening of the season was an opportunity which gave the captains a splendid chance to increase the funds.

At the Union Iron Works the committee met with difficulties because Patrolman Arthur Blunk of the Union Iron Works' detail was averse to taking chances with possible enemy spies. Blunk compelled L. E. Butt, a moving picture man, to accompany him to headquarters yesterday after he had found the latter taking pictures of the local society women selling gum to the iron workers. Indignant Red Cross captains accompanied Butt to headquarters where the camera man displayed his permit signed by army officials allowing him to make photographs in and about working plants.

The women were placated by Sergeant George Daly, who assured them that "Safety First" was a police department rule and because of war times, special precautions must be taken by all officers. But in return the Red Cross captains proceeded to make a "gum drive" on the police department and only after countless packages of the gum had been disposed of did they take their leave.

MEN STRIKE TO MAKE SUN STAND STILL

Unless a modern Joshua can be found to halt the sun, until forty strikers at the Pacific Guano and Fertilizer works, Second and Bristol streets, Berkeley, get all straightened out, there is going to be trouble ahead. For interpreters have been unable to explain the daylight saving law to the strikers, and they refuse to come back to work.

The trouble started when the clocks were put forward one hour. Some forty of the employees, many of whom are Italians, allege that this changed their working day from nine hours to ten. Interpreters tried to untangle this idea, but they failed. So the belligerent forty walked out. Now they demand eight-hour work and the company to let the clock alone and not try to shift the dawn around or fool with the sunset.

A conference was held yesterday between the strikers and company heads, which accomplished nothing. Today a similar conference took place at the local plant, with similar lack of results. The officials of the guano plant insist on a nine-hour day. The plant normally employs 100 men of whom approximately 50 are still at work. The headquarters of the concern are in San Francisco.

POWYS WILL TALK

John Cooper Powys, celebrated lecturer and writer, will be heard in his first lecture in Oakland tonight, when he will tell of his life and work.

AUTO INJURIES MAY COST LIFE

Martin Brigman, 55 years, retired master mariner, living at 1135 Second avenue, is in a serious condition at the Central Hospital as the result of being run over by an automobile driven by J. Chas. Downey, president of the Merchant's Exchange at First avenue and East Twelfth street, last night.

Downey said he was traveling at an average speed around the curve and was on top of Brigman before he could stop his machine. Brigman was wedged beneath the automobile and a fire truck had to be called out to release him. His chest was crushed and his lungs punctured by broken ribs. He was taken to the receiving hospital where it was thought at first that he might die. Since then, however, his condition has shown improvement, and it is said he may recover.

Brigman's only relative is Mrs. Nellie M. Brigman, 4315 Mission avenue, who is a sister-in-law.

Why are $133,000 worth of homes now building in the Lake District?

An extraordinary amount of residential building is going on in the Lake District of Oakland within a radius of a few blocks of our office at Mandana and Lakeshore avenues. For example:

8 houses on Mandana—Investment	$48,000
3 bungalows on Lakeshore Ave.—Investment	$15,000
1 house on Lakeshore Ave.—Investment	$8,000
7 bungalows on Grand Ave.—Investment	$25,000
2 houses on Grand Ave.—Investment	$12,000
6 houses on Excelsior Ave.—Investment	$25,000
Total	$133,000

The reason for such a great volume of building is that, as a magnet draws steel, so the beauty and convenience of the Lake District are attracting everyone who is seeking ideal home conditions.

Scores of Lake District lots are being sold to those who recognize that it will be only a very short time before it will be impossible to obtain choice Lake District homesites at the present low prices.

Fully improved Lake District homesites on our list at $1000, $1200, $1400 and $1500, on very easy terms, are great bargains. Visit our beautiful new Lake District office at 778 Lakeshore Ave., corner of Mandana. Open daily, including Sunday. Take the Lakeshore cars.

The Easiest Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive. And four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.—Advertisement.

Why Spring Brings Out Freckles and Eruptions

The sudden appearance of freckles, slight eruptions or fine lines at this season is attributed by scientists to the "artificial ray" which is unusually active during the spring months. Where the skin is so affected by this influence, if one will procure an ounce of common lanolin and mix with it a little of the oil of turpentine, the trouble can be easily overcome. When the wax is washed off next morning, minute flaky skin particles come with it. The entire outer cuticle is removed in this way in a week or two, with all its defects.

No bleach could so effectively remove freckles or blemishes. The new surface is smooth, clear, fresh looking. No pain or inconvenience accompanies this simple treatment.—Advertisement.

GUARD GOVERNMENT SECRETS.

General Peyton C. March, chief of the general staff of the army, explained before a committee of Congress a few days ago why the War Department has ceased to give out for general publication the name and address of the nearest relative or first friend of a soldier wounded or killed in France. Such information, it was explained, is valuable to the enemy, useful in aiding Germany to strike a more effective blow at American forces on the battle line than might otherwise be likely.

Enemy agents in this country, with the address of the relative of a soldier wounded or killed, would have little difficulty in ascertaining what units were on the particular section of the line under attack. It need not be surprising to learn that this sort of information has been systematically collected and forwarded to the German general staff.

General March gave the assurance, however, that the withholding of such information from publication will not mean that the relatives of men included in the casualty list will not be informed. The address given on the enlistment papers of the soldier will be immediately notified by telegraph as soon as the name of the man killed or wounded is cabled over by General Pershing. The relative or first friend is informed before any statement is given to the newspapers.

The necessity for taking this precaution should impress upon the relatives of soldiers, in every home where a service flag is hung, the urgency of cooperating with the government in its desire for protective secrecy. Notices received from the War Department should not be permitted to reach the knowledge of any person about whom there is the slightest suspicion that he may transmit the information to the enemy or to enemy agents. As it is impossible always to know the heart of men, it is the safest course to talk no more than absolutely necessary about news confidentially received from the battle front.

This matter of casualties is only one phase of war operations in which the people should give their hearty cooperation to the government. All military information concerning the production and distribution of war material should be carefully safeguarded. All men and women engaged in war work, or so situated that knowledge of war work comes to them, should realize that they are on their patriotic honor to prevent leaks of information to the enemy.

War plant and traffic managers, business men, corporation directors, bankers, newspapermen—all are under the same obligation. Talks in clubs, over the luncheon table, in the directors' room, in the homes and on street corners, should carefully exclude all references to details of war work. Valuable information as to contracts for war supplies, their character, amount, weekly output, approximate cost and probable date of delivery has been allowed to leak to the enemy in this way. Thoughtful, loyal citizens will not permit it to happen again when they recognize how they defeat the objects of the nation by doing so. The value of silence and discretion is inestimable.

Absolute secrecy is necessary for the highest efficiency in the "win the war program." The people should try to get an adequate conception of its importance and give the government their fullest cooperation.

GERMANS IN THE FAR EAST.

The War Department has officially confirmed the fact that a detachment of German soldiers, presumably composed of prisoners liberated by the Bolshevik government, has forcibly occupied the Siberian city of Irkutsk. Prussianism, therefore, has appeared closer to the western frontier of America than we suspected it might. The Kaiser's agents are near the border of China and Japan, armed and ready to carry out any project assigned them. It may be taken for granted that Berlin will soon see that the Irkutsk and other Siberian forces of invasion will be supplied with ample munitions, food, clothing and transportation facilities.

When this force strikes at China and Japan, and through those countries at America in the Pacific, it will be too late to take defensive action in Siberia. Seizure of the Pacific port of Vladivostok would then be a much more difficult task than it now is.

Whether the War Department has taken the capture of Irkutsk as a warning that the Allies must protect their Pacific front is not publicly known. But the responsibility for failure to prepare for any emergency in Siberia should not be evaded. Shifting political conditions in Petrograd and Moscow may give some hope that Russia will again join with the Allies, but they cannot possibly constitute a guarantee of safety against German marauders and plunderers in the Far East.

Action in Siberia, if necessary, is the joint affair of all the members of the entente coalition. Russia's consent to any movement is most desirable, and if the Soviet congress is genuinely friendly to the Allies it will accept their aid on Russia's Pacific border.

But it must be remembered that Germany, through intrigue and treachery, brought about the withdrawal of Russia from the war. She should not be permitted, through similar methods and agents, to divide the Allies further.

THE AGE-OLD ISSUE.

As was wisely said by Senator Borah, "we can no longer doubt as to the issue involved in the world contest, and we must not doubt as to the result." We are simply meeting the test which brave men have met before, for this issue has been fought over and over again for 3000 years. Islam's fanaticism was grounded in the same design and made of the same stuff, but it broke over the valor of Charles Martel's men at Tours. But the conflict was not conclusive.

The elder Napoleon was obsessed by the same dream of world dominion, the same passion for military glory that now obsesses those against whom we war. But he, too, saw his universal scepter depart when chance and fate, which sometimes war on the side of liberty, turned from him on the field of Waterloo.

And now the issue is again made up, and again this dream of world dominion, this passion for military glory, torments the soul of our would-be masters. And now, again, somewhere on the battlefields of Europe, the same fate awaits the hosts of irresponsible power. In such a contest and with such an issue we cannot lose, it would not harmonize with the law of human progress.

It has been the proud belief of some that not only would this war result in greater prestige and greater security for free institutions, but that it would effectuate the spread of democracy throughout Europe. We hope for great things, for we believe in the ultimate triumph of free institutions. Let us not permit these things to slip out of our hands. The broken sob of nations struggling to be independent and free, so often heard in that part of the world and then heard no more, the story of Russia just now being written in contention and blood, admonishes us that the republican road to safety and stability is encompassed by all kinds of trials and beset by countless perils.

Democracy is the severest test of character which can be put upon a people and must be earned and acquired in the rigid school of experience. It cannot be handed whole and complete to any people, though every member of the community were a Socrates.

"What we have determined upon in this crisis," said Senator Borah, "is that we will keep the road of democracy open. No one shall close it. If any nation shall hereafter rise to the sublime requirements of self-government and choose to go that way it shall have the right to do so. Above all things we have determined, cost what it may in treasure and blood, that this experiment here upon this western continent shall justify the faith of its builders, that there shall remain here in all the integrity of its powers, neither wrenched nor marred by the passions of war from within nor humbled nor dishonored by military power from without, the republic of the fathers that this last great hope, this fruition of 130 years of struggle and toil, shall not perish from the earth."

The hope of labor lies in the opportunities for freedom: military domination, supervision, checks, bondage, lie in Prussian rule. It is not through a German regime but through democracy that labor is to receive adequate recognition and its realization of its rightful place in the world.

THE DANGER OF TEMPORIZING.

The end of the war is to be wrought not by penwork, however clever, but by the sword of the Lord and of Gideon, the "arms" are to be delivered out of the mouths of cannon; the lazy sons of peace who are too good to live and too proud to fight will have to put on some big more than war paint and feathers before they can be trusted in the final equation to handle results. Down with tommyrot!

There are a few other things to be considered than "freedom, justice and respect for the principles of international law." We shall not treat with the Hohenzollerns at a par with Germany, until Germany is born again. Meanwhile there are scores, many and bloody scores, to settle, the Lusitania and the Sussex; the Belgian horrors, especially the murder of Miss Cavell; the murderous air raids upon London and Paris and the underdog coast towns and hamlets. Even as we have suffered the Hun shall suffer.

"Vengeance is mine, saith the Lord," but Heaven has heard the shrieks of drowning women—has seen the tiny hair of children stretched out in dumb entreaty from the bottom of the sea—and, in answer to both, another voice exclaims above the din of the trumpet and the roar of battle, "Smite the Philistine hip and thigh!" If we equivocate we are lost. Freedom in the United States requires not only the destruction of autocracy in Germany, but the total annihilation of militarism and the entire spirit. If any power is left intact in Germany to make treaty with any other power, we are lost. If all Germany in Germany is not blotted out even as the Southern Confederacy in America was blotted out, we are lost. We have fought in vain, and all our sacrifices in blood and treasure will go for naught if we make not clean and sure work of it. We must smite the Philistine hip and thigh.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

NOTES and COMMENT

The person who takes money unlawfully can always cite justification. The young man who took $12,000 from the Federal Reserve Bank did not receive a sufficiently large salary and his wife needed an operation.

The general movement to eliminate German names is observable. It began with taking down signs from cafes and such places, proceeded with altering names of streets and is manifest in efforts to eliminate the language and the vaunted German "kultur" from educational institutions.

The prompt and summary dismissal by United States Marshal Holohan of a deputy who ran amuck was proper and satisfactory, but it would be interesting to know how such characters come in possession of a United States marshal's authority, badge and revolver.

If it is true that the Teutons lauded the bravery of the British Fifty-first division in holding a section of the line at Democourt it is the first demonstration of the kind that has been reported. The Hun is not so constructed that he can see abstract virtue in others.

"Germans doubt faith of Alsace troops." Considering the last fifty years' experience of the Alsacians under Hun dominance, what could be expected?

Nebraska is a state that seems to realize the necessity of doing something to spies. It is enacting a severe sedition measure, just as most of the states are finding it necessary to do. The country is slow in arriving at such action, apparently because it is difficult to comprehend that anybody can deliberately injure a country as liberal as this to confer an advantage on a country as restrictive of liberty as Hunland.

A political conjunction suggesting that which produces phenomena in celestial bodies is expected to occur today in the arrival of Heney and Hays. Both are on defined political orbits.

Former President Taft urges bullets for spies. When one so amiable takes that stand the menace must be serious and necessity for action acute.

All who have watched the sublime spirit of France in its severe trial will have no difficulty in believing its disclaimer that it has not made overtures to, or even discussed peace with, Hun emissaries.

Californians figure in the current news from Washington. Congressman Kahn leads the fight to speed up war legislation and Secretary Lane leads the effort to do something serious to the spies and propagandists, who, enjoying such immunity, are swarming up all over the country.

The California plan to attempt to follow out a crafty Prussian program, generally make a bundle of it. Clemenceau disposes of Czerin's claim that they discussed peace by saying "He lies." Clemenceau's utterance is bound to command greater credence than Czerin's.

Lenroot has been handsomely elected Senator from Wisconsin. For him and his Democratic contender there were upward of 276,000 votes cast, all of which may be classified as loyal; but upward of 97,000 votes were cast for Berger, which are not of such a satisfactory nature.

This peace talk and the failure of Von Hindenburg to keep that dinner date seem to synchronize.

The Marysville Appeal reports progress on the fishing season: "Although this is the third day of the trout season we have not as yet reeled a fish worth reporting. One local sportsman, however, fell into the stream while angling for the elusive rainbow variety, but we have respected his pleading not to mention his name."

The Chico Record indulges in intricate discussion: "The German birth rate has decreased 50 per cent. If we accept the theological doctrine of re-incarnation, it seems self-evident that the other 50 per cent of the babies have chosen some country to be born in where they'd have a decent chance."

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

Edward Wirtman, an employee of the Western Pipe and Steel Company, was electrocuted last Friday when he stepped into some water in which electric wiring had become short-circuited while inspecting a tank at the Peet Soap Works. Wirtman was rendered unconscious by the heavy shock of electricity which passed through his body. He was taken from the tank and efforts to resuscitate him continued for two hours.—Richmond Record-Herald.

Stockton has organized a hunt for copperheads. Stockton apparently is no more free from disloyal reptiles than other cities, but Stockton is wiser in her day and generation than many other communities. Wherefore she has organized a branch of the American Defense Society, an organization which has as its motto "Win the War" and as a chief plank in its platform the suppression of the activities of spies and traitors and the squelching of disloyal citizens.—Modesto Herald.

That was an important story sent in by the Record's Oakland news man Tuesday telling of the purchase of the Oakland Creamery Company by Armour & Co., the powerful Chicago packers. When such big concerns are attracted by the wonderful resources of our irrigated districts how can we ourselves fail to understand and appreciate our advantages?—Stockton Record.

Bill collectors inform us that the north wind blowing yesterday resulted in their receiving many reprimands from debtors. Californians have been spoiled by having too great a share of good weather, which causes them to kick when the wind doesn't blow from the proper direction.—Marysville Appeal.

DESPOILING THE FLAG.

To the Editor of The Tribune:

I have recently noticed in several newspaper reports of punishment inflicted on certain pro-Germans, a favorite method against which every patriotic citizen should be on guard. It has been reported that insulters of the flag have been forced to kiss it, after having received a coat of tar and feathers. Judging by my own feelings, I am convinced that that method of inducing patriotism must be abhorrent to every real American. In the first place, tarring and feathering a human being only implants a sullen hate that probably never will be eradicated, and ours is a war of conversion, not punishment. In the second place, to permit a traitor to even touch the Stars and Stripes is an insult to the flag. If a man's wife is insulted, does he force the foul insult to kiss her? A man's flag should be as sacred to him as his wife.

My blood fairly boils when I read of these mistaken Americans adding insult to injury by pressing the folds of that glorious banner against Teuton mouths that have spewed their slime, snake-like, upon their very sustenance.

Let us not tar and feather these Huns, let us not intern them in comfortable camps. Let us make sure they are traitors or spies before a military court, and then deal with them as traitors and spies have been dealt with from the beginning of government. A few well-directed bullets from the rifles of a firing squad would at once eradicate any sentiments of hate and of ambition to serve the Kaiser by betraying their adopted country. The Hun has no respect for anything but his personal safety. Fill him with the only kind of respect he knows.

LIBERTY LOAN BONDS READY FOR PEOPLE

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Plans are being rushed today for the opening tomorrow of the campaign for sale of the third Liberty Loan. Directors of the drive announced that forty thousand of the bonds already had been turned out by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, and it was estimated that one hundred thousand will be ready by tomorrow. Thereafter the bonds will leave the presses at the rate of 500,000 daily to supply demands for cash sales and immediate delivery.

Legislation necessary for floating the loan was completed yesterday when the House accepted minor Senate amendments to the bill authorizing the issuance of additional bonds and President Wilson approved the measure.

Announcement of the complete plan for the new loan was made earlier in the day by the Treasury Department.

Here are the essentials of the new issue: Amount $3,000,000,000; over-

Asks Boards to Cut Expense Crowder Says Draft Too Costly

Unless draft boards throughout California cut down on the running expenses of their respective offices, Provost Marshal General E. H. Crowder at Washington, D. C., faces a serious financial shortage in operating expenses which may affect the rushing of 800,000 additional troops to the war zone, according to information received here today.

Through Adjutant General J. J. Borree's office at Sacramento, Crowder has appealed for greater economy. He declares that the running expenses, including unforeseen operative costs are exceeding the appropriations asked from congress in the Provost Marshal General's estimates of December last. He suggests the curtailment of clerks in all boards and a general reduction all along the line.

Attention is called by Adjutant General Borree, in his communication of Crowder's orders to draft boards, that there is an unbalanced condition existing in clerk hire. In one board, where there are 3100 registrants—the heaviest in the state—the work is handled by one clerk, he says; while in another board handling only 3500 registrants, two clerks are used. Efforts to work an equalization of the subscription allowable, interest rate, four and one-quarter percent.

Campaign period April 6 to May 4; date of bonds May 9, 1918; maturity 10 years, or September 15, 1923.

working forces in all local boards are under way as a result of the request. Just how far an excess of expenditure over appropriation allowance may affect the induction of 800,000 additional men into service in accordance with President Wilson's recently announced mobilization program is speculative. Draft officials have been informed unofficially from Washington that this call will not be made in lump amounts but in small quotas. This simplifies the transportation problems of railroads to and from training camps. The various companies are compelled to handle the men free of charge, and extra trains to carry 800 to 1000 men at a time are a dead loss. The smaller quotas can be handled with the addition of an extra car or two to regular trains.

The new call will not entail extra help, it is thought, on account of the small quota arrangement, the present staff of clerical help being considered sufficient. But how far this present force will be allowed to remain, if retrenchment is necessary in order to keep within appropriation limits, and how far a shortening up of the force will cripple induction orders, is the big worry of the draft boards at the present time.

It was intimated that additional financial aid is being sought from congress to meet the new condition.

Here's Chance to Aid Ladies' Relief Work Fiesta and Ball to Be Held Tomorrow

A Brilliant Program Arranged at Hotel Oakland

To feed and clothe properly 100 little children whose ages range from one month to the early teens, and to provide comfort for twenty or thirty women who have been placed in their care, is the problem which the Ladies' Relief Society of Oakland must meet this year. And to this end they have planned the brilliant fiesta and ball to take place tomorrow afternoon and evening at the Hotel Oakland. This charity is one of the oldest and best known of Oakland. Miss Matilda E. Brown is president.

The Ladies' Relief Society was organized in 1871, more than forty years ago, and its long years of service to the helpless little ones and the aged has placed it in the first rank of similar institutions. In order to care for its charges, the society gives each year some large fete or ball to swell the fund which maintains the Old Ladies' Home, together with the Children's Home and Nursery. In the De Fremery Nursery are many little babies—fatherless and motherless—their only home being that provided by the Ladies' Relief.

With the many other demands upon the public war work, Red Cross, Belgian Relief and countless other charities to be attended to, the home charities must not be overlooked—for there are the helpless little lives at home to be cared for, and to the public the Ladies' Relief makes its appeal for aid tomorrow. But he is remembered upon that day will be given one of the most enjoyable events of the year for the children, the grown ups. "Everyone is welcome," come one, come all," is the slogan.

The festivities will begin at an early hour tomorrow morning when the management of the hotel will be taken over by Mrs. Willard F.

HAROLD LOCKWOOD, coming to the American Sunday in "The Landlady," a new Photoplay.

Harold Lockwood plays the role of a picturesque knight of the road in "The Landlady," an adaptation of Holman Day's story of romance and adventure which will be shown at the American commencing with the matinee Sunday. He makes a wager that he could be happy as a tramp and thus proves a good theory. On the same bill Peggy Hyland will appear in "The Debt of Honor." The performances tonight and the matinee and evening performance tomorrow will close the engagement of Evelyn Nesbit and her son, Russell Thaw, in "Redemption," and Margarita Fiedler in "Ann's Finish."—Advertisement.

Nearly 100 matrons will assume their various duties assigned them in the morning—the pages and ushers at luncheon and dinner, the concessions, the children's parties in the afternoon and the bridge party in the tapestry room. Luncheon will be served promptly from 12 to 2 p. m., as the women are to join in the march in the Liberty Loan parade and guests are requested to be prompt in their attendance at luncheon. The cabaret entertainment and style revue will be staged at 12:30 o'clock in the afternoon, and in the evening will be repeated at the dinner hours from 7 to 9 o'clock. Both the grill and main dining hall are to be opened. There are still some reservations to be made. The prices are: Luncheon, 75c; dinner, $2 plate; ball tickets, $1, and table reservations (eight at table) in the ballroom.

'VICTIM' DENIES HE WAS ROBBED

Despite reports made to the police last night that W. S. Monroe, a guest at the Hotel Sutter, had been drugged and robbed in the lobby cafe, at Eighteenth and San Pablo, he denied the matter today when questioned by Inspectors Emigh and Robinson and refused to assist in an investigation.

According to the report made early this morning by Patrolman J. Noble, Monroe went into the cafe shortly before 1 o'clock and had a glass of whisky. He is said to have invited a lady piano player to have a drink with him. After that, his mind became a blank, but he found his way back to his hotel where the night clerk called in Dr. J. Purvis, who made an examination and reported his belief that the patient was suffering from chloral poisoning. The night report was to the effect that Monroe had lost his watch and chain, but this morning he denied the police inspectors that the valuables were missing.

GERMANS FIND IMPORTANCE OF AMERICA

AMSTERDAM, April 5.—"America's aid is gaining gradually in importance with respect to the coming decision," writes Karl Rosner, the war correspondent of the Lokal Anzeiger of Berlin on the western front. He says:

"The value of America's assistance, which formerly was confined to supplies of all kinds of materials and equipment, has grown as the Germans have been getting their hands free in the east. It is of especial importance to Germany's opponents, inasmuch as American divisions are expected to replace the Russians and Rumanians. Interesting information about the Americans in France has been obtained recently near Tabbure. They say the American preparations are most extensive and the troops are settling down as if they intended to remain for years. They are laying down their own railroads and building telegraph and telephone lines, possibly with the ultimate view of doing a profitable business after the war.

"French prisoners describe eloquently the solidly-built and comfortably-equipped American warrens, and make a point that the Americans keep pretty much aloof from their French allies. Thus the Americans remain strangers in the land and the French have no real intercourse with them."

Both Pretty and Useful

are these hand-painted salt and pepper shakers

Decorated in forget-me-not blue, and gold, with a dainty floral design, these chubby little salt and pepper shakers are awaiting their place on your table. They are of generous size, strictly up-to-the-minute and made to be filled from the bottom.

Knowing that it is more correct to have all the salt and pepper shakers on the table alike, we have put no limit on the purchase of these, so feel free to buy two or three sets—as many as your family needs.

Clubs Society

By EDNA B. KINARD.

The dream of many a woman's organization was realized when the censored film shows became a fact in Oakland. Since the censored films began to be popular various organizations throughout the country have been inspired to champion a heretofore lost cause for the education of a body of men and women who would look upon the screen from the standpoint of those who while appreciating the new phase of dramatic art would recognize as well its educational value and moral influence upon child life. A few months ago Oakland Federation of Mothers Club, led by the president, Mrs. J. George Short, and Mrs. S. F. Emery, who was given the honor of the new department, assisted by the School Women's Club of Oakland of which Mrs. Sue Fratis is president, and endorsed by Superintendent of Schools Fred W. Hunter and the board of education, announced a plan for censored Saturday morning film matinees for children and the grown-ups who cared to take advantage not only of the selected reels, but the minimum cost of admission. Moreover, the plan was practical. The board of censors was appointed from the board of education (Miss Marguerite Ogden) the Oakland Federation, the School Women's Club, and the Superintendent Hunter. The Saturday morning censored films became a reality with the Kinema theater leased for the weekly events. Five cents brings the movie fans the best which the film world has to offer and into the coffers which care for the philanthropic work of the federation such as shoeing and clothing for the school lads and lasses who lack proper comforts goes the stream of small coin which remains after the nominal expenses have been met. Perhaps there is no work quite so vital as this caring for the school children whose mothers and fathers cannot properly care for them and seeing that they are kept in the class that the school funds may not suffer a needless deficit.

Hundreds of children and grown-ups are reserving tomorrow morning for the special film matinee at 10 o'clock in the Kinema theater which has been arranged as a monster benefit for the federation work. The regular admission of five cents will hold, although Marguerite Clark in one of her newest releases is to offer the main feature. Besides, there will be a travelogue and a comic to pass the interesting hour. It will be a big day for the Oakland Federation, justifying the attempt which has been made in the matter of the screen and in the philanthropic and extension work. A committee of officers of the Oakland Federation and the School Women's Club will serve as chaperones to the children whose mothers cannot accompany them.

The gifted men and women who make up the personnel of the Speech Arts Association of California and their friends will convene at the Fairmont hotel tomorrow afternoon for

To enjoy a "Hoover supper" more than 100 men and women active in the War Camp Community Service work of the east bay cities are to assemble at the Defenders' Recreation Club Monday evening at 6 o'clock, the guests to include mostly the standing committees of the service. There are to be prominent speakers to tell of the work accomplished and of that planned ahead. The supper (which by the way, is to be served at a reasonable cost and no one will know the total of his bill until the end of the repast) is to be a complete surprise, the menu being arranged by Mrs. William H. Ketcham, who presides over the canteen at the Defenders' Club, and Miss Mary Vail of Mills College.

Attending the dinner will be many of the matrons who have so successfully carried on the war work in entertaining the enlisted men. Among the guests will be the executive committee, including Joseph N. Borroughs, Mrs. John H. Perine, Arthur Moore, Alexander Stewart and Mrs. A. O. Gott of Alameda, Mrs. Samuel M. Marks of Berkeley, Mrs. Thomas Mitchell of Petaluma, E. Smith, George E. Dickie, Miss Ethel Moore, V. O. Lawrence, D. E. Perkins, Herman T. Johnson, George W. Fitch, Dr. C. J. Gaddis, Mrs. Eva Powell, Samuel Hubbard, Mrs. J. W.

the annual convention and luncheon which marks the most elaborate occasion of the season. However, the day will not be given over wholly to play, there is announced a lecture by Leo Emerson Bassett of Stanford University who has chosen as his theme "Thought and Style in Expression." Mrs. Jessica Davis Nahl will present a paper on "Romance and the Novel." "Cantatales" will be the offering to be made by Mrs. Josephine Swan White.

The Speech Arts Association of California claims its executive heads from this side of the bay in the persons of Miss Ida May Bradley, president, and Mrs. Georgia Spelker, vice president. Mrs. L. A. Lessemann is secretary with Celina Straus, treasurer. Among the east shore members are: Fred Emerson Brooks, Mrs. Oscar M. Bennett, Miss Bertha Clark, Mrs. J. G. Howell, Mrs. Mabel Kellogg, Mrs. Evelyn Kierulff, Miss Jean MacMillan, Mrs. Jessica Davis Nahl, Mrs. Georgia Spelker, Miss Douglas Whitehead, Miss Virginia Whitehead, Mrs. Josephine Swan White, Mrs. Luther Williamson.

The funds earned by the amateur farmers and farmerettes are to be invested in Liberty Bonds. Two hundred and sixty acres have been put under cultivation with all sorts of garden stuffs offered the tables in Los Angeles families.

However, Oakland has no boast, however, Oakland has a record of her own. In the Piedmont school the young students have organized a garden company with stock selling at a minimum price. But fortune has begun to smile and the stock has gone up. The garden is flourishing in early peas, lettuce, radishes and the like.

Esberg and the honorary members. Mrs. Frederick L. Turner, Harmon, Lull, Mayor Davis and D. J. Murphree, together with many others. The supper will be an innovation in the work of the club and means to assemble the workers that they may further consider the work in hand.

For the benefit of the Red Cross the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Donogh in Tunnel road will be opened Thursday evening, April 11, for an Irish evening. In the Little Theater of the home will be presented Lady Gregory's "Hyacinth Halcyon," the actors to be Dr. and Mrs. Horace Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Brock, Selden Smith and Vere Hunter.

Forget-me-not Day, Monday, April 8, the birthday anniversary of Albert, king of the Belgians, is to be observed all over the nation with the thousands of the tiny flowers, real and imitation, are to be sold for 10 cents a spray, the money to be donated to the cause of the Society for Relief in Belgium and France. In this State the California Committee for Relief in Belgium and France will have charge of the day. Miss Marion Ransom is chairman and has received a telegram from Mrs. Vernon Kellogg setting the date for the affair in this State and wishing the committee success in their undertaking. Oscar Sutro has been appointed chairman in general for the day, and her captains are to be Mrs. Wickham Havens, Mrs. Bernard Ransome, Mrs. Augustus Bray, Mrs. Edward Lacey Grayson, Mrs. Allen Chickering, Mrs. Clinton Walker, Miss O'Sullivan and Miss Gladys Wickson.

The high school students are to do their part, and from Fremont High Miss Ethel Bumbach and her committee have promised their full support, while Technical High will do its share, together with many other young girls from the private and public schools of the city, in disposing of the dainty blossoms for the aid of the Belgian women and children. From the gardens of Berkeley, Alameda, Piedmont and Oakland will come thousands of the blooms, and they will be picked in the early sunrise hours Monday morning by the school girls who chose this way to help.

Two of the younger brides-elect, Miss Mary Beebe and Miss Julie Atwater, are to be guests of honor tomorrow afternoon at a luncheon which Miss Marjorie Porter will give at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. H. Porter, in the garden of the hotel. Twenty cards have been sent out for the affair, and the guests will spend the afternoon in the garden, and the luncheon will be given by Miss Margaret Boveroux the afternoon of April 12, when Mrs. Milford Burch will be the hostess. The affair also will be a luncheon and knitting party.

Mrs. Philip S. Cole will be among the dinner hostesses Saturday evening at the Hotel Oakland, preceding the Ladies' Relief fund-raising, the largest social event of the season.

More than a score of matrons met at the home of Mrs. Charles Martin in Monticello avenue this afternoon to discuss plans for their regular charity work. The club has adopted a Belgian baby and through informal card parties support the infant.

Miss Anita Gallagher will become the bride of Lester Hubert Folger Wednesday, May 8, the ceremony to be performed at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Gallagher, in Piedmont. Relatives and intimate friends are to be guests at the wedding, after which an informal reception will be held. There are to be no attendants upon the bride couple. Following the reception the home of the couple is to be in the North.

Mrs. Albert Burch of Berkeley left yesterday for Boulder Creek, Colo., to visit her daughter, Mrs. Robert Sterling, formerly Mrs. B. H. Sterling. The Sterlings will meet Mrs. Burch in Denver, and from there motor to the Sterling home. Mrs. Sterling recently returned to Colorado from a visit at the Burch home on Arch street, joining in a family reunion over the holiday season. Mrs. Burch will be gone several months.

Mrs. Reginald D. Conroy and her infant daughter, Jean Capwell Conroy, have left to join Captain Conroy at West Point, where the latter is stationed. In New York they will meet Mrs. Frederick Seidel, whose husband is also in the service.

Any grocer will sell you two fresh lemons and your drug store will supply you with three ounces of orchard white. Put these in a bottle and shake well. Here you have a whole quart of the most wonderful lemon lotion at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold creams.

Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in. Then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove sunken freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoother and beautifier.

Used by day, this sweetly fragrant lotion protects the skin from the evil effects of the weather and prevents roughness, redness, chafing and smarting. At night it works its magic while you sleep, and is intended to bring a freeness and peach-like beauty that wins envy and admiration.

Just try it! Make up a quarter pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It naturally helps to whiten, soften, refresh, and bring out the roses and beauty of any skin. It works marvelously on rough, red hands. Try it and see for yourself.—Advertisement.

CHAPTER LVIII.

A Busy Morning.

It was almost noon when I awoke Monday, the day after our little chafing dish supper. For a moment I could not separate the real events of the night before from the troubled dreams which had filled the hours since I went to bed. I had dreamed of babies, all night long, gruesome visions of dead babies, terrifying dreams of trying to save dying children.

"Dicky," I called his name as loudly as I could. To my surprise he rose from a chair at the front of my bed. I had not seen him when I awoke.

"Are you still bewildered?" he asked playfully, yet with an anxious look. "I was beginning to be afraid you were going to be ill. You've been having night-mares evidently, talking in your sleep of trying to save some child. I've tried to waken you two or three times, but you wouldn't budge."

"I remember now," I said. "The maid from across the hall ran in here last night with that baby in a convulsion, and Mrs. Underwood had brought it out before the doctor arrived. Have you heard this morning how the child is?"

"No. Only saw a nurse and a doctor. Been watching you since. Do you feel like getting up? Katie has breakfast ready, I think, and I ought to be serious over to the studio."

"Oh, Dicky, I'm so sorry to have kept you waiting. Run along now and I'll be ready in a minute."

"Don't hurry. There's no life and death matter waiting."

I slipped on a negligee and breakfast cap, stockings and Japanese house slippers, and with my face and hands and combed out to the breakfast table. I did not feel comfortable for I always tub and dress completely before breakfast, but I did not wish to keep Dicky any longer.

"You ought to wear that pig oilener, Madge's Dicky's was admirable."

"You look right in it."

"I'm glad you like it. I feel terribly sloppy in it."

Katie brought in the breakfast things, her face beaming.

"That baby, him better."

"The girl," Dicky said. "How did you know?"

"Dot girl, dot Sue, across the hall, she bring back hot water bag early this morning say much obliged, baby better, tank you. Then she hurry back quick."

"Father disconcerted me to treat us. Don't you think, dear? I should have thought the mother would have brought the bag herself and thanked us for our trouble."

"Don't be such a stickler for the proper thing, Madge. Perhaps she thought you might need the bag. They probably are pretty upset, you know."

I did not answer. I did not wish to argue with Dicky, but I had an inward conviction that the people across the hall were envious and ill-bred. I resolved, however, that a lack of courtesy on one part should not make me forget my own training. I meant to go to the door later in the day, and ask after the baby. By the reception I reached I could judge whether I should offer any further courtesies.

"Well, good-bye, sweetheart."

I lingered over my breakfast. I felt lazy, tired. I am not used to late hours, and they exhaust me. As I finally rose from the table, I felt the telephone rang.

As I took down the receiver, I heard an unfamiliar feminine voice, its tones cultured, pleasant.

"Is Mrs. Graham there?"

"I am Mrs. Graham. Who is this, please?"

"Oh, Mrs. Graham, I am Mrs. Smith of the Lotus Sunday Club. I just received your note, saying you would consider taking the leadership of our history section. I am so glad. Where can I see you and when?"

"I have engagements this week at all," I answered. "Any day that will suit your convenience will be all right for me."

"How would tomorrow afternoon at 3 do, then?"

"Very well indeed. Where shall we meet?"

"Let me see. You are at Twenty-ninth street. Suppose we say that dear little tea room, on Twenty-eighth street. The sign of the Spinning Wheel, isn't it called?"

"Oh, yes, I know the place perfectly. How shall I know you?"

"How perfectly absurd! We neither of us know what the other looks like. Suppose we imitate the marriage correspondence schools and each wear a pink carnation."

"I think that will be quite thrilling," I replied.

"All right, at 3 then; good-bye."

"Good-bye," I sang up the receiver. I felt quite excited, shaken out of my laziness. I resolved to dress and take a walk.

On my way out of the building I thought of my resolve to ask after the baby who had been brought into my apartment the night before. I came slowly back and rang the bell of the apartment opposite mine.

The maid who had rushed in with the baby the night before, opened the door. She smiled at me, but said nothing.

"How is the baby this morning?" I asked. "After I hope."

"Wait a minute," she said. "I will call my madam."

She vanished and I heard a whispered comment.

"Oh, that woman from across the hall. I suppose I shall have to see her."

But the woman from across the hall was walking rapidly away, her face ashen.

Youthful Hats of Silk and Straw For Girls

"Well, inquired Julie as she slipped out of a sport suit, 'what next?'"

"I'd like you to try on some hats which Marcelle finished yesterday. They were designed for the girls at Knightly Manor School. We'll go into the gray salon—the light is better there," answered Madame, as two of Marcelle's girls appeared with the hats.

"This one with the knitting bag to match is for little Miss Burns," said Madame, handing a small model covered with Dolly Varden taffeta to Julie, who proceeded to settle it well down over her golden locks.

The silk had an ivory-tinted background with detached bunches of posies scattered over its surface. The flowers were tinted blue, rose, lavender and green. A facing of old blue straw braid of a soft, pliable quality lined the mushroom brim. The medium low crown and the brim were of the flowered silk piped about the edges with cordings of plain blue taffeta. Narrow streamers of the flowered silk outlined with pipings of blue hung over the edge of the brim.

A very dainty knitting bag of the same silk, lined with plain blue, corresponded perfectly with the hat. It was carried by means of oddly-shaped handles wound with antique gold gullion.

"DUPLICATE OF DRAWING."

"There's nothing wrong with that set, Marcelle made an exact duplicate of the drawing," was Madame's only comment as Julie exchanged the taffeta hat for a sailor with a straw brim and satin crown.

The broad brim was a basket weave in dark blue and white pliable straw. The soft crown was of heavy white satin with a corded piping of the satin outlined with a single flower, with petals of white satin and foliage of dark blue poised on one side of the brim, close to the base of the crown.

"This hat is for Miss Wellsley, who is rather tall and dark. It ought to be very becoming. I like the way the brim rolls downward at the right side. Now, Julie, please put on the little hat of beige Milan."

I knew without being told that this model was for Miss Payton. It had a rather high crown with a narrow, mushroom brim, faced with dark blue taffeta. The under brim at the side and back was banked with multi-colored French flowers arranged very closely together. A band of narrow blue velvet ribbon to match the facing was drawn about the base of the crown and tied at the back in a tiny bow with long streamers.

"COLORING JUST RIGHT."

Madame was thoroughly satisfied with the smartness of this model, remarking that the coloring was just right for Miss Payton's copper-red hair.

Next, Julie tried on a bonnet of hemp in the natural color. The turned-down brim was faced with China blue taffeta. A double ruffling of the same silk with picot edges was arranged about the base of the high crown. The center of the ruffling was trimmed with a band of narrow ribbon velvet in a darker tone of China blue. The ends were tied in a small bow with streamers which hung far down the back.

I had to leave before Julie had finished trying on the hats, as I had an appointment with Mrs. Spaulding to show her some frocks made of foulard and printed silks.

"I'll be with you as soon as I can, Claire. Be sure to choose the prettiest models and select hats for those designed for street wear," were Madame's instructions as I left the gray salon.

The Signal

ALL OAKLAND WHISTLES WILL SOUND FROM 7 TO 7:10AM. SATURDAY APRIL 6th

THE SIGNAL! It will be Oakland's signal for the great Third Liberty Loan drive. Tomorrow, bright and early, every whistle in Oakland will sound a welcome to this third opportunity to back up our boys "over there."

It will be a signal for loyal dollars to roll into the banks—buying LIBERTY Bonds

It will be a signal for all red-blooded American citizens of Oakland to join hands and hearts in another "VICTORY" drive—lending our money to the Government to drive the principles of humanity into an insane nation

It will be a signal for fluttering hearts—whose loved ones are already in the service, either training in our great camps or "over there," where death is a constant companion. To them it will be a signal of loyalty, of honor, of deepest love

Let it be YOUR signal to help keep the war "over there." Let it be YOUR signal to BUY THIRD LIBERTY LOAN BONDS—for humanity's sake.

The Parade

Under the leadership of Grand Marshall Miss Ethel Moore, local chairman of the State and National Councils of Defense, Oakland's big LIBERTY LOAN parade will pass in review tomorrow afternoon.

Miss Moore will be mounted and accompanied by eight young women from Mills College, also mounted, as her aides.

One hundred and twenty-seven captains of divisions will direct the movements of this great spectacle.

Divisions for Rotary Club, Fraternal Orders, Red Cross, Men, Women, Children, Boy Scouts, High School Cadet organizations, Bands and Marines will be seen.

The Liberty Loan slogans will be on display.

The Line of March

Oakland's Liberty Loan Parade starts from Jefferson and 11th at 2 p. m. on the dot. It will go north to Fourteenth, east to Washington, south to 11th, east to Broadway, north to Fourteenth, east to Lake Merritt.

RE DOWN TOWN—HELP START THE THIRD LIBERTY LOAN
IN OAKLAND

Oakland's quota on the Third Liberty Loan is $7,000,000.00.

Third Liberty Loan Bonds will mature in ten years.

They will bear interest semi-annually at 4 1/4 per cent.

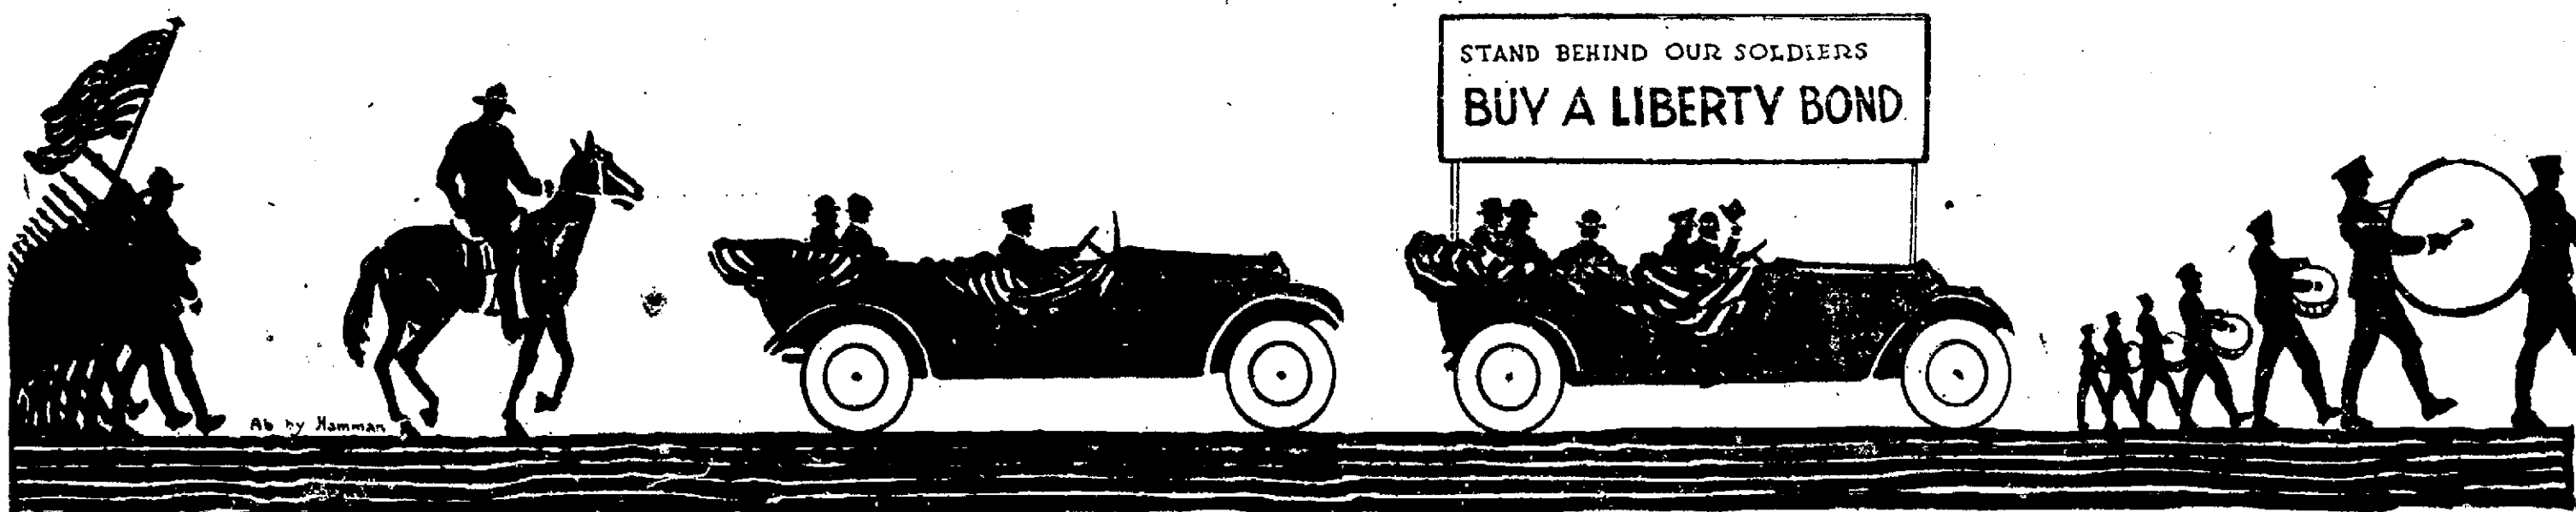

When purchased upon the Government plan, the first payment will be 5 per cent of the bond value.

When purchased on terms of Oakland banks, first payment will be 10 per cent, and 10 per cent each month on amounts of less than $500.

They may be purchased from any bank in Oakland.

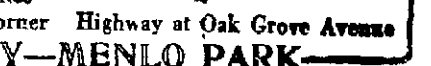

The Liberty Loan Campaign will continue for four weeks—ending May 4th.

SERVICE LEAGUE AIDS WAR WORKERS

Resolutions supporting labor bodies, church organizations and other organizations engaged in war work as loyal to America, were adopted last night by the War Service League as an answer to an accusation that some organizations were disloyal.

Another resolution was also adopted calling on the public to report to the War Service League any person or corporation violating the wheat conservation regulations or other food administration rules.

The first resolution sets forth that there have been cases where an occasional slacker has been found in an organization and that the whole organization on this ground, it is in opposition to this which the league holds traceable to German influence, that the resolution was offered.

NO FLANNEL; IT'S NEEDED FOR GAS MASKS AT FRONT

SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 4. No more woolen underwear will be supplied to inmates of state institutions until the war is over, according to W. G. McMillin, state purchasing agent, who has received a telegram that the government has commandeered the output of flannel in the United States for the purpose of making gas masks.

McMillin asked for bids on flannel underwear and failed to receive even one. A few days ago he completed a deal for 2,500 suits of underwear at approximately $8 per dozen, the day following the purchase, the price going up to $10.50 per dozen.

McMillin also states that by being able to pay cash for the garments through having recourse to the revolving fund recently turned over to his department by the state board of health he has been able to save about $4,000.

SCHOOLS TO COMPETE IN FLAG ESSAY

Energetic co-operation is purposed by the Oakland school department in the Oakland Rotary Club's campaign to "Keep the Flag Up" and to this effect an essay contest has been arranged. Concerning this contest Superintendent of Schools Fred M. Hunter has issued the following announcement:

"The Oakland Rotary Club is conducting a campaign throughout the city in response to the slogan 'Keep the Flag Up.' A survey will be made by this club of all the homes and business houses in the city to promote this cause. A series of prizes have been offered by the OAKLAND TRIBUNE, consisting of three fine silk flags for each division defined below to be given to the school which shall present the best composition by an individual pupil on the subject, 'Why Keep the Flag Up.' The conditions in this essay contest are as follows:

HIGH SCHOOL DIVISION.
The first prize, a fine silk flag, offered to the high school presenting the best composition of 600 words by an individual student on the above subject. Second and third prizes, also smaller silk flags, will be offered to the high schools presenting individual compositions rating second and third.

AN ARMY OF INTERNAL BATHERS

Over half a million bright, keen, up-to-date Americans have found that internal bathing is more essential to their well-being than External Baths.

Have found that taken occasionally at night they feel like different people the next morning. No more of that bilious, tired, nervous condition—but, having by Nature's own cleaner, antiseptic warm water, removed all the poisonous wastes from the Lower Intestines, they awake thoroughly refreshed by normal sleep, with all their functions acting in healthy accord, bright, happy, clear-headed and confident, eager and capable for the duties of the day.

Mr. Walter Johnson writes: I got a "J. B. L. Cascade" outfit from you and I am glad I did. It worked fine. I haven't used any medicine since the "Cascade" arrived—do not need it. I used "Cascade" according to direction. It certainly does just what you say. Its use makes one feel fine and hungry. Am using the "Cascade" once a week now, but don't need it so often.

Why not learn more about this rapidly growing and natural practice? The "J. B. L. Cascade," the original and best appliance for this purpose, manufactured by Chas. A. Tyrrell, M. D., is now being shown and explained by The Owl Drug Co. There also may be obtained free on request "Why Man of Today Is Only 50 Per Cent Efficient," a most interesting booklet on the subject.—Advertisement.

GOVERNOR CALLS FOR PLEDGE ANEW ON ANNIVERSARY

SACRAMENTO, April 5. The people of California were urged "to take some time" tomorrow, the anniversary of the entry of America into the war, "to pledge ourselves anew to the cause for which we fight," in a proclamation issued today by Governor William D. Stephens.

The proclamation follows: "One year ago tomorrow the United States of America took its place beside the nations which are hazarding their existence to the end that the evils of autocracy may be obliterated. During the year we have accomplished much. We have trained and equipped an enormous army; we have taught ourselves the lessons of food conservation; but the greatest of our deeds has been the absolute unification of the patriotic spirit of the people in support of the stand the nation has taken.

"By the strength of that spirit we and our brave allies are waging this war and by that strength we will win.

"I believe that on this day we should take some time to pledge ourselves anew to the cause for which we fight and to thank God for the success we have thus far had."

BAKER IS AT PARIS

PARIS, April 5.—Newton D. Baker, the American secretary of war, who has just returned from Rome and the Italian battlefield, held a number of conferences today.

SEVENTH AND EIGHTH GRADE DIVISION.
The first prize will be offered to the school presenting the best composition of 400 words by an individual student in the seventh or eighth grade on the above subject. Second and third prizes of flags also will be offered to the schools presenting individual compositions rating second and third.

ELEMENTARY DIVISION.
Fourth, fifth and sixth grades. The first prize will be offered to the school presenting the best composition of 200 words by an individual student in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades on the above subject. A second and third prize will be offered to the schools presenting individual compositions rating second and third.

"These compositions will be regular English work in written composition. They will entail upon the teachers no extra work except this—each teacher will select the best composition in her own class. A committee appointed by the principal will select from these compositions the three best compositions which shall represent the school in that division. Principals will send these compositions to the offices of the Board of Education by Monday, April 22.

"A school having all eight grades, thus will send six compositions, three best for the seventh and eighth grades and three best for the fourth, fifth and sixth grades. High schools, of course, will send only three each. A sweepstakes committee will be appointed to read and rate the three best compositions in each class.
